FAMILY SUPPORT LETTER FOR IMMIGRATION

August 21, 2054

Immigration Officer

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

123 Main Street

Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to express my wholehearted support for the immigration application of Emily Johnson, who is my sister. Emily is seeking a U.S. immigrant visa under the family reunification program, and I am honored to provide my endorsement for her application.

Emily, my sister, is a valued family member known for her integrity and dedication. She recently completed her Master's in Environmental Science and works as a research analyst in Toronto. Our bond remains strong despite living in different countries, and we've supported each other through many milestones.

I am committed to supporting Emily emotionally and financially during her stay in the U.S. With my stable job as a project manager at [Your Company Name], I can assist with her initial living expenses and ensure she has the resources to settle in. Emily, a person of high moral character, has actively contributed to environmental advocacy and community service. Her skills and dedication will be an asset to our society and economy.

Thank you for considering my support in Emily Johnson's application. If you require any additional information or further details, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Signature

American Immigration Questions and Answers Olusegun Asekun, 2017-12 ABOUT THE BOOK Knowledge is important and the right answers to your questions make all the difference. If you lack the right knowledge, it will be difficult, if not impossible, for you to achieve your dreams. Immigrants from all over the world—Africa, Europe, Asia, South America, etc.—arrive in the United States of America every day bringing their hopes and their dreams with them, but some never achieve that dream. In this mind-expanding book, American Immigration Questions and Answers, Olusegun Asekun gets to the heart of the deepest aspirations of immigrants to legally visit, live, work, and school in the USA. Through relevant questions, enlightening answers, strong facts, intriguing cases, and helpful tips, the author shows you how to navigate the complex path of American immigration. ABOUT THE AUTHOR Olusegun Asekun is an experienced immigration attorney. He is also a senior partner at The Law Office of Olu Asekun PC, located in Arlington, Texas. He has been in active law practice for 24 years and has been practicing exclusive immigration law in the United States for more than 13 years. Olusegun Asekun is a member of the Nigerian Bar Association, American Bar Association, American Immigration Lawyers Association. He is licensed in the following jurisdictions: Nigerian Supreme Court, United States Supreme Court, New York State Supreme Court, United States Court of Appeal for the Fifth Circuit, United States Court of Appeal for the Sixth Circuit, United States Court of Appeal for the Tenth Circuit, United States District Court, Northern District of Texas, United States District Court, Eastern District of Texas, United States District Court, District of Colorado. Immigration Procedures Handbook Austin T. Incarcerated Stories Shannon Speed, 2019-08-27 Indigenous women migrants from Central America and Mexico face harrowing experiences of violence before, during, and after their migration to the United States, like all asylum seekers. But as Shannon Speed argues, the circumstances for Indigenous women are especially devastating given their disproportionate vulnerability to neoliberal economic and political policies and practices in Latin America and the United States, including policing, detention, and human trafficking. Speed dubs this vulnerability neoliberal multicriminalism and identifies its relation to settler structures of Indigenous dispossession and elimination. Using innovative ethnographic practices to record and recount stories from Indigenous women in U.S. detention, Speed demonstrates that these women's vulnerability to individual and state violence is not rooted in a failure to exercise agency. Rather, it is a structural condition created and reinforced by settler colonialism, which consistently deploys racial and gender ideologies to manage the ongoing business of occupation and capitalist exploitation. With sensitive narration and sophisticated analysis, this book reveals the human consequences of state policy and practices throughout the Americas and adds vital new context for understanding the circumstances of migrants seeking asylum in the United States. A Practitioner's Guide to Supporting Graduate and Professional Students Valerie A. Raza Sí, Migra No Jimmy Patiño, 2017-10-18 As immigration from Mexico to the United States grew through the 1970s and 1980s the Border Patrol police and other state agents exerted increasing violence against ethnic Mexicans in San Diego's volatile border region In response many San Diego activists rallied around the leadership of the small scale print shop owner Herman Baca in the Chicano movement to empower Mexican Americans through Chicano self determination The combination of increasing repression and Chicano activism gradually produced a new conception of ethnic and racial community that included both established Mexican Americans and new Mexican immigrants Here Jimmy Patiño narrates the rise of this Chicano Mexicano consciousness and the dawning awareness that Mexican Americans and Mexicans would have to work together to fight border enforcement policies that subjected Latinos of all statuses to legal violence By placing the Chicano and Latino civil rights struggle on explicitly transnational terrain Patiño fundamentally reorients the understanding of the Chicano movement Ultimately Patiño tells the story of how Chicano Mexicano politics articulated an abolitionist position on immigration going beyond the agreed upon assumptions shared by liberals and conservatives alike that deportations are inherent to any solutions to the still burgeoning immigration debate

The Daughters of Immigrants Catherine Bryan, Asha Jeffers, 2023-10-30 This collection brings together established and emerging scholars from the humanities and the social sciences whose work considers the daughters of immigrants By showcasing these varied perspectives the collection draws meaningful connections across national and ethnic lines while attending to the particularities of specific histories locations and migration journeys The multidisciplinary nature of this project highlights the relevance and usefulness of varied methodological and theoretical approaches for understanding the diverse lived experiences of the daughters of immigrants as well as how those experiences are theorized and represented While each chapter contains its own argument assumes its own conceptual and disciplinary viewpoint and tends to specific national and ethnic origins and sites of immigration each offers meaningful insight into the gendered positionality of the daughters of immigrants as mediated by the complexities of migration kinship and culture Taken together these contributions point to the nuanced ways national ethnic and gendered identity function and how those not always well served by how these identities are constituted understand and navigate forces beyond their control

Feminist (Im)Mobilities in Fortress(ing) North America Amy Lind, Marianne H.

Marchand, 2016-04-15 Since the establishment of the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA tensions concerning immigration trends and policies which continued to escalate at the turn of the millennium resulted in revised national security policies in Mexico Canada and the United States These tensions have catalyzed the three governments to rethink their political and economic agendas While national feminist scholarship in and on these respective countries continue to predominate since NAFTA there has been increasing feminist inquiry in a North American regional frame Less has been done to understand challenges of the hegemonies of nation region and empire in this context and to adequately understand the meaning of im mobility in people s lives as well as the im mobilities of social theories and movements like feminism Drawing from current feminist scholarship on intimacy and political economy and using three main frameworks Fortressing Writs Exclusionary Rights Mobile Bodies Immobile Citizenships and Bordered Borderland Identities a handpicked group of established and rising feminist scholars methodically examine how the production of feminist knowledge has occurred in this region The economic racial gender and sexual normativities that have emerged and or been reconstituted in neoliberal and securitized North America further reveal the depth of regional and global restructuring

Even the Women Are Leaving

Larisa L. Veloz, 2023-05-09 The first decades of the twentieth century were crucial for the development of Mexican circular family migration a process shaped by family and community networks as much as it was fashioned by labor markets and economic conditions Even the Women Are Leaving explores bidirectional migration across the US Mexico border from 1890 to 1965 and centers the experiences of Mexican women and families Highlighting migrant voices and testimonies Larisa L. Veloz depicts the long history of family and female migration across the border and elucidates the personal experiences of early twentieth century border crossings family separations and reunifications This book offers a fresh analysis of the ways that female migrants navigated evolving immigration restrictions and constructed binational lives through the eras of the Mexican Revolution the Great Depression and the Bracero Program
