Subject: (The purpose of sponsorship/donation)

Respected — (Name of the donor/sponsor),

I, (mention your name), would like to introduce myself to you and your team. I am working /studying as a — (mention job position/college course) with — (company /college name). I would like to bring to your kind attention the purpose of writing this letter and connecting with you. Being a part of this organization/college, we would require additional funds to complete this phase successfully. As you know the importance of this — (mention the reason) will enable to create a brighter future for us/me, you and society as a whole.

Also, you must be aware about the organization/institution, I am associated with and the goodwill it has in the society. Associating with this cause will benefit you/your organization immensely in gaining a positive outlook and will be a source of motivation for others to follow in the coming future. I would also like to mention the estimated cost that you would have to fund in order to bring this process to a complete success. We would want to know, how soon you can provide us with the funding and the total amount you can give for funding.

We are well aware of your previous sponsored programs/donated list of students who have gain immensely from your this action and have also contributed towards social upliftment and renovation. So, we would request you to provide the required support through your act of sponsorship/donation and extend your help in our endeavor.

Looking forward to your kind support and a fruitful association.

Thanking you,

Sincerely,

— (Add Your Name)

Change a Life, Change your Own Peter Ove,2018-06-11T00:00:00Z

Change a Life Change Your Own is a long overdue adult discussion about how child sponsorship a spectacularly successful fundraising tool infantilizes both donor and recipient turning good intentions into paternalism and reinforcing stereotypical Western ideas about helplessness and hopelessness in developing countries Ian Smillie author of The Charity of Nations Freedom from Want and Diamonds Change a Life Change Your Own For less than a dollar a day For the cost of one coffee a day With these slogans and their accompanying images of poor children some of the world s largest development organizations invite the global North to engage in one of their most prominent and successful fundraising techniques child sponsorship But as Peter Ove argues in Change a Life Change Your Own child sponsorship is successful not because it addresses the needs of poor children but because it helps position what it means to live ethically in an unequal and unjust world In this way child sponsorship is seen as more than an effective marketing tool it is a powerful mechanism for spreading particular ideas about the global South the global North and the relationship between the two Through sponsorship the desire to raise money secure appropriate childhoods and become better people ends up taking priority over the goal of living together well on a global scale Drawing on in depth interviews with child sponsors and sponsorship staff Change a Life Change Your Own explores the contexts in which sponsorship promotional material is produced interpreted and acted upon This is not an expos on the use of sponsorship dollars or high administrative costs it is a clearly written and compelling account of how the problem of development is constructed such that child sponsorship is seen to be a rational and ethical solution

Campus Activities Programming ,2005-05 Cold War Comforts Tarah Brookfield,2012-05-01 Cold War Comforts examines Canadian women s efforts to protect children s health and safety between the dropping of the first atomic bomb in Hiroshima in 1945 and the end of the Vietnam War in 1975 Amid this global insecurity many women participated in civil defence or joined the disarmament movement as means to protect their families from the consequences of nuclear war To help children affected by conflicts in Europe and Asia women also organized foreign relief and international adoptions In Canada women pursued different paths to peace and security From all walks of life and from all parts of the country they dedicated themselves to finding ways to survive the hottest periods of the Cold War What united these women was their shared concern for children s survival amid Cold War fears and dangers Acting on their identities as Canadian citizens and mothers they characterized with their activism the genuine interest many women had in protecting children s health and safety In addition their activities offered them a legitimate space to operate in the traditionally male realms of defence and diplomacy Their efforts had a direct impact on the lives of children in Canada and abroad and influenced changes in Canada s education curriculum immigration laws welfare practices defence policy and international relations Cold War Comforts offers insight into how women employed maternalism nationalism and internationalism in their work and examines shifting constructions of family and gender in Cold War Canada It will appeal to scholars of history child and family studies and social policy
