Pendragon Don

Nigro, 2003 In this robust and compelling tale commissioned and produced by the Idaho Shakespeare Festival John Rhys Pendragon is at Guernica during the Fascist bombing in 1937 His memories take him back to 1910 and conjure up Mark Twain Teddy Roosevelt James J Jeffries and Ernest Hemingway as the play pieces together his remarkable life recalls his three lost loves and vividly portrays colorful characters he has interviewed This unique American love story is part of the author's cycle The Pendragon Plays

Joe Black Martha Jo Black, Chuck Schoffner, 2015-02-01 He was told that the color of his skin would keep him out of the big leagues but Joe Black worked his way up through the Negro Leagues and the Cuban Winter League He burst into the Majors in 1952 when he signed with the Brooklyn Dodgers In the face of segregation verbal harassment and even death threats Joe Black rose to the top of his game he earned National League Rookie of the Year and became the first African American pitcher to win a World Series game With the same tenacity he showed in his baseball career Black became the first African American vice president of a transportation corporation when he went to work for Greyhound In this first ever biography of Joe Black his daughter Martha Jo Black tells the story not only of a baseball great who broke through the color line but also of the father she knew and loved

Juice Stephen Becker, 2016-01-12 A corporate executive stands accused of a terrible crime in this searing legal drama from the bestselling author of A Covenant with Death The managing director of a popular West Coast television network Joseph Harrison has everything a man could want a successful career a loving family the promise of a bright and prosperous future His life is one happy circumstance after another until the fateful evening he gets behind the wheel after drinking three martinis and hits a pedestrian Arraigned on charges of manslaughter Harrison knows that his perfect world is lost forever But no one seems to think he should pay for his crime Not the chairman of the network's board of directors who immediately hires a slick Hollywood attorney to defend Harrison Not the eyewitnesses to the accident whose testimonies suddenly change when they step inside the courtroom Not even the judge who is pressured by the powerful interests that stand behind the defendant Only Harrison believes that he should face the consequences but is he brave enough to proclaim his guilt when the entire system wants to declare him innocent A dramatic portrait of one man's moral crisis and a blistering indictment of the influence of money and power in America Juice is a masterful novel of suspense from one of the twentieth century's most original and captivating authors
