The Death Penalty in Africa Aimé Muyobokey Karimunda, 2016-03-16 Human development is not simply about wealth and economic well being it is also dependent upon shared values that cherish the sanctity of human life Using comparative methods archival research and quantitative findings this book explores the historical and cultural background of the death penalty in Africa analysing the law and practice of the death penalty under European and Asian laws in Africa before independence Showing progressive attitudes to punishment rooted in both traditional and modern concepts of human dignity Aim Muyobokey Karimunda assesses the ground on which the death penalty is retained today Providing a full and balanced appraisal of the arguments the book presents a clear and compelling case for the total abolition of the death penalty throughout Africa This book is essential reading for human rights lawyers legal anthropologists historians political analysts and anyone else interested in promoting democracy and the protection of fundamental human rights in Africa

The Law of Nations in Global History Charles Henry Alexandrowicz, 2017 The history and theory of international law have been transformed in recent years by post colonial and post imperial critiques of the universalistic claims of Western international law The origins of those critiques lie in the often overlooked work of the remarkable Polish British lawyer historian C H Alexandrowicz 1902-75 This volume collects Alexandrowicz's shorter historical writings on subjects from the law of nations in pre colonial India to the New International Economic Order of the 1970s and presents them as a challenging portrait of early modern and modern world history seen through the lens of the law of nations The book includes the first complete bibliography of Alexandrowicz's writings and the first biographical and critical introduction to his life and works It reveals the formative influence of his Polish roots and early work on canon law for his later scholarship undertaken in Madras 1951-61 and Sydney 1961-67 and the development of his thought regarding sovereignty statehood self determination and legal personality among many other topics still of urgent interest to international lawyers political theorists and global historians

Race in the Shadow of Law Eddie Bruce-Jones, 2016-12-01 Race in the Shadow of Law offers a critical legal analysis of European responses to institutional racism It draws connections between contemporary legal knowledge practices and colonial systems of thought arguing that many people of colour experience the law as a part of a racial problem rather than a solution to racial injustice Based on a critical legal ethnography of anti racism work in Europe and with an emphasis on the German context the book positions Black and anti racist perspectives at the centre rather than the margins of critically thinking through the intersection of race and law Combining this ethnography with comparative legal analysis discourse analysis and critical race theory the book develops a critical discussion of the European legal frameworks aimed at regulating racism and particularly institutional racism in policy and policing In linking this critique to the transformative potential of social movements however it goes on to examine the strategic and creative possibility of disrupting conventional modes of engaging and resisting law

The Acquisition of Africa (1870-1914) Mieke van der Linden, 2016-10-05 Over recent decades

the responsibility for the past actions of the European colonial powers in relation to their former colonies has been subject to a lively debate In this book the question of the responsibility under international law of former colonial States is addressed Such a legal responsibility would presuppose the violation of the international law that was applicable at the time of colonization In the Scramble for Africa during the Age of New Imperialism 1870 1914 European States and non State actors mainly used cession and protectorate treaties to acquire territorial sovereignty imperium and property rights over land dominium The question is raised whether Europeans did or did not on a systematic scale breach these treaties in the context of the acquisition of territory and the expansion of empire mainly through extending sovereignty rights and subsequently intervening in the internal affairs of African political entities

Law's Documents Katherine Biber, Trish Luker, Priya Vaughan, 2021-12-29 Illuminating their breadth and diversity this book presents a comprehensive and multidisciplinary view of legal documents and their manifold forms uses materialities and meanings In 1951 Suzanne Briet a librarian at the Bibliotheque Nationale in Paris famously said that an antelope in a zoo could be a document thereby radically changing the way documents were analysed and understood In the fifty years since this pronouncement the digital age has introduced a potentially limitless range of digital and technological forms for the capture and storage of information In their multiplicity and their ubiquity documents pervade our everyday life However the material intellectual aesthetic and political dimensions and effects of documents remain difficult to pin down Taking a multidisciplinary and international approach this collection tackles the question what is a legal document in order to explore the material aesthetic and intellectual attributes of legal documentation the political and colonial orders reflected and embedded in documents and the legal archival and social systems which order and utilise information As well as scholars in law documentary theory history Indigenous studies art history and design theory and practice this book will also appeal to those working in libraries archives galleries and museums for whom the ongoing challenges of documentation in the digital age are urgent and timely questions

United Nations Peacekeeping and the Principle of Non-Intervention Jennifer Giblin, 2024-03-26 Using a unique application of Third World Approaches to International Law TWAIL this book provides a critical interdisciplinary examination of the contemporary practice of UN peacekeeping Is peacekeeping intervention Since its conception in the mid 1950s peacekeeping has significantly evolved from traditional lightly armed passive operations to robust multi dimensional stabilisation peacekeeping operations This raises questions as to whether this is simply a natural evolution of peacekeeping or whether it marks an expansion of the concept beyond its boundaries pushing it into the realm of peace enforcement or intervention In response this book examines the frameworks which govern UN peacekeeping and seeks to understand the relationship between peacekeeping and the principle of non intervention Providing practical examples from the United Nations operations in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and drawing upon interviews with key international actors including UN personnel the book explores the boundaries of peacekeeping contending that peacekeeping at times becomes a form of intervention This the book argues is detrimental both to the concept of peacekeeping and to the host state and it concludes by offering a series of recommendations to reaffirm peacekeeping s boundaries and amplify the effectiveness of contemporary peacekeeping This book will be of interest to scholars and students in international law international relations politics history and criminology Cycle World

Magazine, 2003-01 Explorations in Legal Geography Mariana Valverde, 2025-10-17 Addressing the issue of scale in governance legal and extra legal the book draws on post colonial studies Indigenous geography and empirical and historical studies of the legal logics of Empire This book examines legal frameworks across six descending scales Beginning with a global perspective centred on Global South viewpoints and globalisation critiques it then explores imperial legal structures Next it addresses the nation state scale predominant in both mainstream and critical legal scholarship with particular focus on challenging notions of ethnic homogeneity The examination continues at the local level analysing how various governing bodies exercise authority within their jurisdictions It then narrows to consider home as both a physical and legal construct revealing how property concepts intertwine with social relationships Finally it investigates the human body as a governance site through queer legal studies queer geography and feminist scholarship that documents how female bodies specifically have become objects of legal and extra legal control Concluding by considering the regulatory dilemmas that have plagued authorities as they navigate the various scales of governance considered here Explorations in Legal Geography will be of considerable interest to students and scholars of legal geography socio legal studies and criminology Cumulative Digest of United States Practice in International Law, 1946 Essays in African Land Law Robert Home (College teacher), 2011

Decolonisation and Legal Knowledge Folúké Adébísí, 2024-04-09 The law is heavily implicated in creating maintaining and reproducing racialised hierarchies which bring about and preserve acute global disparities and injustices This essential book provides an examination of the meanings of decolonisation and explores how this examination can inform teaching researching and practising of law It explores the ways in which the foundations of law are entangled in colonial thought and in its re production of ideas of commodification of bodies and space time Thus it is an exploration of the ways in which we can use theories and praxes of decolonisation to produce legal knowledge for flourishing futures Scrambling for Protection Patrick M. Garry, 2010-11-23 In our age of media revolutions Patrick M Garry offers guidelines for constitutionally redefining the press and maintains that the First Amendment press clause must broaden the scope of its freedoms to include the communication activities of a much larger public Decolonising Intellectual Property Law Jade Kouletakis, Nkem Itanyi, 2025-09-30 This book advocates for an Afrocentric approach to intellectual property IP law using lessons from Nigeria's past to encourage reform for the future of Africa's legal IP landscape Highlighting the Eurocentric influence on the history of intellectual property law in Africa the book demonstrates how this contradicts traditional African community culture This book makes the case for legitimising cultural expressions of traditional communities despite the western legal framework within which they exist reimagining a decolonised IP framework whereby African histories are centred Questioning the fundamentals of the current IP landscape such as the concept of eligibility in copyright which developed alongside European technological advances the book also details the role of the courts in resolving IP disputes It highlights Africa as a powerhouse of original autonomous innovation values and traditions which predate the West's concept of intellectual property It illustrates the African experience of intellectual property from a pro African perspective as shared by African authors This book will be of interest to researchers in the field of intellectual property copyright and patent law as well as African law

Thank you also to Jakolien Strydom and ClickCreate for your charitable assistance in developing and designing the logo. To the authors, this year has in many respects been challenging, with many of those challenges affecting students directly. We appreciate the dedicated efforts put into your submissions and your wholehearted cooperation throughout the entire process. Much appreciation is also extended to the reviewers who have selflessly committed to assisting the PSLR during the peer review process. To all of the reviewers, your input, guidance, and recommendations are greatly appreciated. Pheny Nomasonto Morwesi Sekati, Editor in Chief, 2020.

The Top Books of the Year Period Law Scramble The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Period Law Scramble : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
