Meaning and Being in Myth Norman Austin,2010-11-01 Norman Austin has organized his analysis of classical Greek myths around Lacan's dichotomy between ineffable Being and the meanings imposed upon Being by culturally determined signifiers The primary

signifiers in myth the gods as projections of contradictory meanings impel human consciousness in contradictory directions toward heroic self realization on the one hand and into the fear guilt and despair resulting from failure on the other The gods both reveal and occlude that which they signify the signified ultimately Being itself Austin includes one chapter on the father's ghost in Shakespeare's Hamlet and another on Albert Camus's The Stranger as examples of the power of mythical archetypes to reveal and occlude Being even when the apparatus of gods has been excluded Despite their pessimism ancient myths also affirm that the paradoxes are not insoluble Austin concludes by outlining the profile of the Universal Self intimated in myth religion and philosophy as the joint venture of the world realized in consciousness consciousness realized in consciousness and consciousness realized in the world Milton's Ovidian Eve Mandy Green, 2016-04-22 Milton's Ovidian Eve presents a fresh and thorough exploration of the classical allusions central to understanding Paradise Lost and to understanding Eve one of Milton's most complex characters Mandy Green demonstrates how Milton appropriates narrative structures verbal echoes and literary strategies from the Metamorphoses to create a subtle and evolving portrait of Eve Each chapter examines a different aspect of Eve's mythological figurations Green traces Eve's development through multiple critical lenses influenced by theological ecocritical and feminist readings Her analysis is gracefully situated between existing Milton scholarship and close textual readings and is supported by learned references to seventeenth century writing about women the allegorical tradition of Ovidian commentary hexameter literature theological contexts and biblical iconography This detailed scholarly treatment of Eve simultaneously illuminates our understanding of the character establishes Milton's reading of Ovid as central to his poetic success and provides a candid synthesis and reconciliation of earlier interpretations

Walkers Between the Worlds Caitlín Matthews, John Matthews, 2004-01-14 Beneath the orthodox religions that lay claim to the soul of Western man runs an esoteric current that has preserved the lore and hermetic traditions of our ancestors Walkers Between the Worlds explores the ancient earth wisdom of the shaman and the Gnostic and Egyptian mysteries of the East Practical exercises drawn from these traditions are included Mathematics and Art Lynn Gamwell, 2016 This is a cultural history of mathematics and art from antiquity to the present Mathematicians and artists have long been on a quest to understand the physical world they see before them and the abstract objects they know by thought alone Taking readers on a tour of the practice of mathematics and the philosophical ideas that drive the discipline Lynn Gamwell points out the important ways mathematical concepts have been expressed by artists Sumptuous illustrations of artworks and cogent math diagrams are featured in Gamwell's comprehensive exploration Gamwell begins by describing mathematics from antiquity to the Enlightenment including Greek Islamic and Asian mathematics Then focusing on modern culture Gamwell traces mathematicians' search for the foundations of their science such as David Hilbert's conception of mathematics as an arrangement of meaning free signs as well as artists' search for the essence of their craft such as Aleksandr Rodchenko's monochrome paintings She shows that self reflection is inherent to the practice of both modern mathematics and art and that this introspection points to a deep resonance between the two fields Kurt Godel posed questions about the nature of mathematics in the language of mathematics and Jasper Johns asked What is art in the vocabulary of art Throughout Gamwell describes the personalities and cultural environments of a multitude of mathematicians and artists from Gottlob Frege and Benoît Mandelbrot to Max Bill and Xu Bing Mathematics and Art demonstrates how mathematical ideas are embodied in the visual arts and will enlighten all who are interested in the complex intellectual pursuits personalities and cultural settings that connect these vast disciplines Food and Transformation in Ancient Mediterranean Literature Meredith J. C. Warren, 2019-05-03 New research that transforms how to understand food and eating in literature Meredith J C Warren identifies and defines a new genre in ancient texts that she terms hierophagy a specific type of transformational eating where otherworldly things are consumed Multiple ancient Mediterranean Jewish and Christian texts represent the ramifications of consuming otherworldly food ramifications that were understood across religious boundaries Reading ancient texts through the lens of hierophagy helps scholars and students interpret difficult passages in Joseph and Aseneth 4 Ezra Revelation 10 and the Persephone myths among others Features Exploration of how ancient literature relies on bending challenging inverting and parodying cultural norms in order to make meaning out of genres Analysis of hierophagy as social action that articulates how patterns of communication across texts and cultures emerge and diverge A new understanding of previously confounding scenes of literary eating Söd, the Mysteries of Adoni Samuel Fales Dunlap,1861 A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts,2008-06-09 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century Texts in Transit in the Medieval Mediterranean Y.
