cultural unconscious through canine iconography Through our dogs we figure out what we're thinking and who we are representing by proxy the things that we don't quite want to recognize in ourselves Often it's a specific breed or type of dog that serves as an informal cultural mascot embodying an era's needs fears desires longings aspirations repressions and hopeless contradictions Combining cultural studies with personal narrative this book creates a playful speculative reading of American culture through its canine self-representations Looking at seven different breeds or types over the last seven decades readers will go on an intellectual dog walk through some of the mazes of American cultural mythology The Facts On File Dictionary of Classical and Biblical Allusions Martin H. Cinema M K Raghavendra, 2020-03-18 Locating World Cinema argues for the importance of understanding the local context of a film's creation and the nuances that it conveys to the spectator It examines the sociocultural contexts intrinsic to cinema from milieus like the USSR Russia China Japan France the US Iran and India The book analyses the works of some of the more celebrated but at times less than fully understood auteurs such as Kenji Mizoguchi from Japan Robert Bresson Jacques Rivette and Eric Rohmer from France Abbas Kiarostami from Iran Martin Scorsese from the US Zhang Yimou from China and Aleksei German from Russia Further it examines how the conditions of exhibition for art house cinema has transformed into the global art film that attempts to bypass the local by addressing international audiences The book deals with complex ideas but is lucidly written making it accessible to film students and lay persons alike The Utah Magazine E.
