Alexander the Great in the Early Christian Tradition Christian Thue Djurslev,2019-12-12 What has Alexander the Great to do with Jesus Christ Or the legendary king s conquest of the Persian Empire 335 23 BCE to do with the prophecies of the Old Testament In many ways the early Christian writings on Alexander and his legacy provide a lens through which it is possible to view the shaping of the literature and thought of the early church in the Greek East and the Latin West This book articulates that fascinating discourse for the first time by focusing on the early Christian use of Alexander Delving into an impressively deep pool of patristic literature written between 130 313 CE Christian Thue Djurslev offers original interpretations of various important authors from the learned lawyer Tertullian to the Christian Cicero Lactantius and from the apologist Tatian to the first church historian Eusebius He demonstrates that the early Christian adaptations of the Alexandrian myths created a new tradition that has continued to develop and expand ever since This innovative work of reception studies is important reading for all scholars of Alexander the Great and early church history Retelling

12 15 These citations are each addressed to or imply a particular textual audience namely the Jews This book argues that as such the citations do not merely have Christological significance but function at the narrative level to encourage an ideal reader to construct a particularly negative characterization of the Jews
