Luke's Rhetorical Compositions Paul Elbert, 2022-07-19 Luke's Rhetorical Compositions offers new ideas in Lukan scholarship especially in regard to Aelius Theon's first century rhetoric manual Progymnasmata and inter textual Lukan Pauline biblical studies Two chapters deserve special mention the material in chapter 3 is a groundbreaking discussion of Acts 2:38 in which its Greek verb tense speaks to the subsequent reception of the gift of the Holy Spirit following salvation not coincident with salvation In Acts 2:38 it is Luke's intention to portray Peter as promising the gift of the Holy Spirit to hearers and to those beyond narrative time as a Pentecostal experience Chapter 9 discusses Luke's use of progymnasmatic examples in his descriptions of the salvation experience It also discusses Luke's clarification of Paul using narrative persuasion from Jesus tradition and history Also Luke's use of basic soteriological vocabulary provides clarity and plausibility His distinctive selection of examples from the Jesus tradition and his duplication of Paul's soteriological vocabulary is very helpful

Growing Up a Woman Milena Kaličanin, Soňa Šnircová, 2015-10-13 This book explores contemporary transformations of the female Bildungsroman showing that the intersection of the genre and gender brought to critical attention in the context of second wave feminism remains of equal importance in the era of postfeminism. The female Bildung narrative has acquired an important position in twentieth and twenty first century literature through its continuing depiction of female self discovery and emancipation as a process of negotiating the traditional divisions of female and male roles in relation to the private and public spaces. Recognizing the seminal contribution of feminist criticism to the definition of the genre and the role of feminist cultural processes in its thematic developments this volume investigates more recent influences on the female Bildung narrative and the influence of the classic female Bildungsroman on contemporary cultural texts. As a collection of fifteen essays written by international scholars the book offers a representative sample of the narratives of female development presenting a variety of genres including the novel the short story autobiography TV series and Internet video blogs and theoretical frameworks adopting hermeneutic postcolonial feminist and postfeminist perspectives. In its diversity this volume reveals that despite the ongoing process of women's emancipation the heroine's struggle with the private/public divide has remained throughout the twentieth century and in the first decades of the new millennium a central issue in stories about the female quest for self definition. The book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of literary women and gender studies particularly those interested in the narratives of female development that represent American and British cultural contexts.

Unquiet Tropes Elda E Tsou, 2015-03-27 Until quite recently Asian American literary criticism had little to do with form. Instead the tendency was to bind the literary tradition to identity formation. For Elda Tsou however the distinctions of ethnic writing extend beyond such facile referential practices to incorporate form and aesthetics. In Unquiet Tropes Tsou reconceptualizes the literature as a set of highly particular classical rhetorical tropes including antanaclasis rhetorical question apophasis catachresis and allegory. Looking at five canonical works Aiiieeeee No No Boy China Men Blue's Hanging and Native Speaker Tsou shows how these texts use figurative means to confront the problem of race. She also explores how traces of Asian American history live on through these figures. Each case study in Unquiet Tropes considers a different scenario defiance coercion necessity error and deceit to show how literary representation from the 1950s through 1997 has responded to a specific political condition.
