Reunion In Barsaloi:

Reunion in Barsaloi Corinne Hofmann, 2014-05-14 Fourteen years after fleeing Kenya with her baby daughter Corinne returned in the summer of 2004 to meet Lketinga and his family again in their village Barsaloi Nervous as she was and uncertain as to how he would react on seeing her again she found to her relief that she was welcomed unreservedly by all those who remembered her by Lketinga who still thought of her as his wife number one by his brother James now a schoolteacher and especially by Lketinga's mother who had looked after Corinne with such care all those years before Corinne Hofmann revisits an area of a country which she cares about passionately describing in her immensely readable style the changes she saw after her time away and once again bringing to life the atmosphere and characters in the Masai village

Great Expectations Jonathan Skinner, Dimitrios Theodossopoulos, 2011-10-01 The negotiation of expectations in tourism is a complex and dynamic process one that is central to the imagination of cultural difference Expectations not only affect the lives and experiences of tourists but also their hosts and play an important part in the success or failure of the overall tourism experience It is for this reason the authors argue that special attention should be given to how expectations constitute and sustain tourism The case studies presented here explore what fuels the desires to visit particular places to what degree expectations inform the experience of the place and the frequent disjunctions between tourist expectations and experiences Careful attention is paid to how the imagination of the visitor inspires the imagination of the host and vice versa how tourists and host communities actively imagine re imagine and shape each other's lives This realization has profound consequences not solely for academic analysis but for all those who participate in and work within the tourism industry long term relationships George Paul Meiu uses his deep familiarity with the communities these men come from to explore the long term effects of markets of ethnic culture and sexuality on a wide range of aspects of life in rural Kenya including kinship ritual gender intimate affection and conceptions of aging What happens to these communities when young men return with such surprising wealth And how do they use it to improve their social standing locally By answering these questions Ethno erotic Economies offers a complex look at how intimacy and ethnicity come together to shape the pathways of global and local trade in the postcolonial world
