Pageants and Processions Herman du Toit,2009-10-02 Nowadays pageants often take the form of parades of effervescent young women competing for popular recognition in hyped up media events However these beauty pageants are a mere pastiche of the elaborate historical parades of the medieval period that took significant social religious or civic events and their protagonists as subjects Pageants were historically characterized by resplendent costuming and elaborate processions that were often given to much pomp and ceremony Pageantry has formed an important part of the civic life of most societies both ancient and modern serving a variety of cultural and political purposes The use of drama and public spectacle as an instrument of civic social and religious activism has recently become the focus of renewed academic inquiry The essays in this interdisciplinary anthology provide carefully researched insights into the phenomenon of pageantry over the centuries and across broad cultural boundaries Arcady in Australia Coral Lansbury,1971-01-01 This provocative book examines the vision of Australia in nineteenth century English literature The industrial revolution destroyed the myth of an

idyllic rural way of life in England and writers like Charles Dickens Bulwer Lytton and Charles Reade created it anew in the improbable environment of Australia The popular image of Australia in English literature was Arcadian in turn it dominated the thought and traditions of writing in Australia The man who supplied the material for English writers was Samuel Sidney he was for a time regarded as an expert on Australia although he had never set foot in the antipodes and all his material was second hand His influence on the literature of the period and consequently on Australia has received scant attention Sidney's influence is fully examined the book also offers entirely new material on Wakefield Dickens Lytton and Reade It provides a new and challenging interpretation of literature and social history in both England and Australia Truth ,1883 A Shift in the Portrayal and Reception of Homosexuality from the Victorian to the Modern Period Darby Dyer,2024-12-15 A Shift in the Portrayal and Reception of Homosexuality from the Victorian to the Modern Period explores how the reception of homosexuality in literature evolved and morphed greatly from the late 19th century to the 20th century and how the gender of the author played a particularly important role Victorian society scorned and punished gay men to a harsher degree due to the subversive taboo and emasculating nature of male homosexuality as evident in the reception of Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray In contrast the Modern period saw a positive portrayal and reception of homosexuality in Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway Modern society as well as Victorian society accepted same sex female relationships under the assumption that women were incapable of engaging in sexual acts an assumption influenced by Queen Victoria Thus on the surface both societies tolerated female homosexuality in literature However this distorted tolerance was a limiting and silencing force Darby Dyer compares the homosexuality in the works and lives of Wilde and Woolf to other authors during their time periods to address how far queer representation has come in literature and other arts She concludes with a call to action that the fight is not over Film Bulletin ,1972
