Revenge Erotic Suspense English Edition:

The Erotic Thriller in Contemporary Cinema Linda Ruth Williams, 2005 This bold and original book examines in detail a relatively new genre of film the erotic thriller Linda Ruth Williams traces the genre's exploitation of pornography and noir discusses mainstream stars including Michael Douglas and Sharon Stone as well as genre branded direct to video stars charts the work of key producers and directors and considers home videos as a distinct form of viewing pleasure She maps the history of the genre analyzing hundreds of movies from blockbusters such as Basic Instinct Fatal Attraction and In the Cut to straight to video film titles such as Carnal Crimes Sins of Desire and Night Eyes Williams's witty and illuminating readings tell the story of this sensational genre and contribute to the analysis of mainstream screen sex and its censorship at the beginning of the 21st century She shows that as the erotic thriller plays out the sexual fantasies of contemporary America it also provides a vehicle for marketing those fantasies globally

Hitchcock's America Jonathan Freedman, Richard Millington, 1999-02-25 Alfred Hitchcock's American films are not only among the most admired works in world cinema they also offer some of our most acute responses to the changing shape of American society in the 1940s 50s and 60s The authors of this anthology show how famous films such as Strangers on a Train Vertigo North by Northwest and Rear Window along with more obscure ones such as Rope The Wrong Man and Family Plot register the ideologies and insurgencies the normative assumptions and the cultural alternatives that shaped these tumultuous decades They argue that just as these films occupy a visual landscape defined by the grand monuments of American civic life Mt Rushmore the Statue of Liberty the United Nations they are also marked by their preoccupation with the social mores and private practices of mid century America Not only are big city and suburban life the explicit subjects of films like Rear Window and Shadow of a Doubt so are the forms of experience that emerge within these social spaces whether the urban voyeurism examined by the former or the intertwining of banality and violence depicted in the latter Indeed just about every form of American life that was achieving social power at this time the national security state the science and art of psychoanalysis the privileging of the free wheeling improvisatory self the postwar codification and fissuring of gender roles road culture and its ancillary creation the motel is given detailed critical and mordant examination in Hitchcock's films The Hitchcock who emerges is not merely the inspired technician and psychological excavator that critics of the past two generations have justly hailed he is also a cultural critic of remarkable insight and undeniable prescience Lesbian Cinema after Queer Theory Clara

Bradbury-Rance,2019-01-30 Maternal Conceptions in Classical Literature and Philosophy Alison Sharrock,Alison

Keith,2020-01-29 Unlike many studies of the family in the ancient world this volume presents readings of mothers in classical literature including philosophical and epigraphic writing as well as poetic texts Rather than relying on a male viewpoint the essays offer a female perspective on the lifecycle of motherhood Although almost all ancient authors are men this book nevertheless aims to carefully unpack the role of the mother not as projected by the son or other male relations but from a woman s own experiences in order to better understand how they perceived themselves and their families Because the primary interest is in the mothers themselves rather than the authors of the texts in which they appear the work is organized according to the lifecycle of motherhood instead of the traditional structure of the chronology of male authors The chronology of the male authors ranges from classical Greece to late antiquity while the motherly lifecycle ranges from pre conception to the commemoration of offspring who have died before their mothers From Russia With Love: A James Bond

Transgressing Women Jamaluddin Aziz, 2012-01-17 Transgressing Women focuses on the literary and cinematic representation of female characters in contemporary noir thrillers The book argues that as the genre has grown expanded and been subverted since its initial conception along with the changing definition of gender the representation of a female character has also inevitably gone through some dramatic changes So the book asks some important questions What links the female characters in canonical noir to their contemporary counterparts Is gender division still relevant in a text that transgresses gender boundaries What happens when it is the human body itself that betrays the traditional definition or constitution of a human being While many have written about the male protagonists and the femmes fatales in the noir genre little attention has been given to the other female characters who inhabit the noir world and are transgressors themselves The main concern of the book is to trace the transgressive female characters in contemporary noir thrillers both novels and films by engaging itself with some of the most topical debates within both post feminist and postmodernist theories The book is structured around two key concepts space and the body These temporal and spatial indicators are central in contemporary cultural theories such as postmodernism and post feminism along with other theorizations of gender and the noir genre This means that the analysis is drawn from the classical noir examples and will then arrive at the neo noir sub genre and then will move on to the most recent phenomenon in the genre future noir Social Issues in Television Fiction Lesley

Henderson,2007-06-06 Why are some controversial issues covered in TV soaps and dramas and not others How are decisions really made behind the scenes How do programme makers push boundaries without losing viewers What do audiences take away from their viewing experience Does TV fiction have a greater impact on public understandings than TV news This exciting new book draws on unique empirical data to examine the relationship between popular television fiction and wider society The book gives lively and engaging insights into how and why socially sensitive story lines were taken up by different TV programmes from the late 1980s to the 2000s Drawing on a series of case studies of medicine health illness and social problems including breast cancer mental distress sexual abuse and violence it comprehensively traces the path of storylines from initial conception through to audience reception and uses contemporary examples to link practice to theory For the first time this book addresses production and receptio The Gay Male Sleuth in Print and Film Drewey Wayne Gunn,2013 This
