Roman Spaces Essays Around An Empire:

Roman Spaces Eric S. Morse, 2014-11-28 It has been fashionable to view the Classical past as a thing dead and frozen scarcely accessible and certainly of no relevance to current international affairs It has also been fashionable to over sensationalize the past and to draw conclusions that are hard to justify in the light of the available evidence The essays in this book explore aspects of Roman Imperial history and try to define some of the experiences that we and our remote historic ancestors may have in common Roman Spaces Eric S. Morse, 2014

The Atlantic as Mythical Space: An Essay on Medieval Ethea Alfonso J. García-Osuna, 2023-05-23 The Atlantic as Mythical Space is a study of medieval culture and its concomitant myths legends and fantastic narratives as it developed along the European Atlantic seaboard It is an inclusive study that touches upon early medieval Ireland the pre Hispanic Canary Islands the Iberian Peninsula courtly love France and the pagan and early Christian British Isles The obvious and consequential ligature that runs throughout the different sections of this text is the Atlantic Ocean a bewildering expanse of mythical substance that for centuries fueled the imagination of ocean side peoples It analyzes how and why myths with the Atlantic as preferential stage are especially relevant in pagan and early Christian western Europe It further examines how prescientific societies fashioned an alternate cosmos in the Atlantic where events beings and places existed in harmony with communal mental structures It explores why in that contrived geography these societies angels and monsters were able to materialize with wonderful profusion it further analyzes how the ocean became a place where human beings ventured forth searching for explanations for what is essentially unknowable the origins of the universe and the reason for our existence in it

World and Hour in Roman Minds Richard J. A. Talbert, 2023 The nineteen essays in World and Hour in Roman Minds Exploratory Essays encapsulate Talbert's pioneering efforts to penetrate Romans elusive consciousness of space and time The range spans itineraries maps boundary markers roads sundials and veterans certificates

The Conquest of Ruins Julia Hell, 2019-03-19 The Roman Empire has been a source of inspiration and a model for imitation for Western empires practically since the moment Rome fell Yet as Julia Hell shows in The Conquest of Ruins what has had the strongest grip on aspiring imperial imaginations isn't that empire's glory but its fall and the haunting monuments left in its wake Hell examines centuries of European empire building from Charles V in the sixteenth century and Napoleon's campaigns of the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries to the atrocities of Mussolini and the Third Reich in the 1930s and 40s and sees a similar fascination with recreating the Roman past in the contemporary image In every case particularly that of the Nazi regime the ruins of Rome seem to represent a mystery to be solved how could an empire so powerful be brought so low Hell argues that this fascination with the ruins of greatness expresses a need on the part of would be conquerors to find something to ward off a similar demise for their particular empire

Lived Spaces in Late Antiquity Carlos Machado, Rowan Munnery, Rebecca Sweetman, 2024-04-30 This volume considers lived space as a scholarly approach to the past showing how spatial approaches can present innovative views of the world of Late Antiquity integrating social economic and cultural developments and putting centre stage this fundamental dimension of social life Bringing together an international group of scholars working on areas as diverse as Britain the Iberian Peninsula Jordan and the Horn of Africa this book includes burgeoning fields of study such as lived spaces in the context of ships and seafaring during this period Chapters investigate the history function and use of different spaces in their own right and identify the social and historical logic presiding over continuity and or change They also explore the fluidity of lived space in both its physical and conceptual dimensions analysing issues like agency and intentionality as well as meaning and social relations Space is the fundamental dimension of social life the arena where it unfolds and the stage where social values and hierarchies are represented analysis of space allows us to understand history through different means of shaping occupying and controlling space Considering Late Antiquity through a spatial perspective offers a complex and stimulating picture of this pivotal period and this volume provides avenues for the development of further research and discussion in this area Lived Spaces in Late Antiquity is a fascinating resource for students and scholars interested in space and spatiality in the late antique world as well as archaeology classical studies and late antique studies more generally

Byzantine Warfare John Haldon, 2017-03-02 Warfare was an integral part of the operations of the medieval eastern Roman or Byzantine Empire both in its organization as well as in social thinking and political ideology This volume presents a selection of articles dealing with key aspects of Byzantine attitudes to war and violence with military administration and organization at tactical and strategic levels weapons and armaments and war making itself discussions which make an important contribution to answering the questions of how and why the empire survived as long as it did

Time and Space in Ancient Myth, Religion and Culture SNF-Projekt, Menelaos Christopoulos, Athina Papachrysostomou, 2017-10-10 From Homer to Sophocles and Greek Middle Comedy and from Plato and Protagoras to Ovid this volume features a panoramic and cross generic overview of the diverse handling and ad hoc elaboration of the overarching literary notions of time and space The twenty one contributions of this volume written by an international group of esteemed scholars provide an equal number of hermeneutic approaches to individual distinct aspects of Greek and Latin literature The volume is purposely designed not as a linear display of knowledge but rather as an anthology of select paradigms that aim to demonstrate the multidimensional function and multifaceted role of the twin notions of time and space throughout ancient Greek and Latin literary texts The volume opens with analyses of conspicuous cases from epic poetry proceeds with examples from drama tragedy and comedy and concludes with diverse instances of chronotopes empirical imaginary and even shifting ones in various literary genres The volume is of greatest relevance since it meets the cultural and theoretical trends of today's Classics It therefore will attract not only the interest of specialised Classicists but it is also intended for a wider general readership

Negotiating Cultural Identity Himanshu Prabha Ray, 2017-09-19 This volume breaks new ground by conceptualizing landscape as a dynamic cultural complex in which the natural world and human practice are inextricably linked and are constantly interacting It examines the social and cultural construction of space in the early medieval period in South Asia as manifest in society religious architecture and as shaped through trade and economic transactions British Representations of the Middle East in the Exhibition Space, 1850-1932 Holly O'Farrell, 2023-11-10 This volume analyses British exhibitions of Middle Eastern particularly ancient Egyptian and Persian artefacts during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries examining how these exhibitions defined British self image in response to the Middle Eastern other This study is an original interpretation of the exhibition space along intersectional constructionist lines revealing how forces such as gender race morality and space come together to provide an argument for British supremacy The position of museums as instruments of representation of display made them important points of contact between the British national imperialist scheme and the public Displays in the British Museum Victoria and Albert Museum and Burlington House provide a focus for analysis Through the employment of a constructionist lens the research outlines a complex relationship between British society and the Middle Eastern artefacts presented in museums during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries This allows a dialogue to emerge which has consequences for both societies which is achieved through intersections of gender race and morality in space This book will be of value to students and scholars alike interested in museology cultural studies history and art history
