Nigeria's Third-Generation Literature Ode Ogede, 2023-03-10 This book considers the evolution and characteristics of Nigeria's third generation literature which emerged between the late 1980s and the early 1990s and is marked by expressive modes and concerns distinctly different from those of the preceding era The creative writing of this period reflects new sensibilities and anxieties about Nigeria's changing fortunes in the post colonial era The literature of the third generation is startling in its candidness irreverence as well as the brutal self disclosure of its characters and it is governed by an unusually wide ranging sweep in narrative techniques This book examines six key texts of the oeuvre Maria Ajima's The Web Okey Ndibe's Foreign Gods Inc Teju Cole's Open City Chika Unigwe's On Black Sisters Street Lola Shoneyin's The Secret Lives of Baba Segi's Wives and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's The Thing Around Your Neck The texts interpret contemporary corruption and other unspeakable social malaise together they point to the exciting future of Nigerian literature which has always been defined by its daring creativity and inventive expressive modes Even conventional storytelling strategies receive revitalizing energies in these angst driven narratives This book will be of interest to students and researchers of contemporary African literature Sociology Gender and women's studies and post colonial cultural expression more broadly The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Researching and Teaching Reading Gabrielle Cliff Hodges, 2015-08-20 Many agree that engaging in research is what makes a teacher's professional development sustainable and Researching and Teaching Reading studies the ways in which research and teaching are entwined both within and beyond the classroom Gabrielle Cliff Hodges encourages readers to deepen their understanding of reading through high quality teaching and research activities designed to engage young learners and generate rich research data in the expectation that teachers will wish to adapt or develop them further within their own contexts The author explores how teachers research and critical reading can further develop their understanding of their students reading practices and argues that innovative approaches to teaching integrated with research enable English teachers to re construct ideas and change how reading is taught Key issues considered in this book include Studying reading in terms of extending young people s ability to interpret and enjoy texts The idea of reading as a social practice The concept of culture in relation to reading Why historical and spatial theoretical perspectives matter when researching and teaching reading This book is a valuable resource for any student teachers or practising English teachers wishing to learn more about the connection between researching and teaching reading how to combine them in the classroom and the positive effect bringing the two together can have on their own professional development

Meeting the Third World Challenge Alasdair I. MacBean,V. N. Balasubramanyam,1978-01-01 Implementing EU Mobility Partnerships Fanny Tittel-Mosser,2020-06-08 This book provides a comprehensive assessment of the effectiveness of Mobility Partnerships and their consequences for third countries Mobility partnerships between the EU and third countries are usually viewed as reflecting asymmetric power relations where development aid trade relations and visa policies are made conditional upon the cooperation by third countries with an EU agenda of migration control This book argues that three main factors condition the relevance of Mobility Partnerships the state of relations between EU Member States and a third country and in particular the role of postcolonial ties the power of negotiation of a third country which is linked to its geopolitical importance for the EU and its administrative capacity which is understood as the capacity of a state to define and implement policies and to legislate and enforce the law The work combines a comparative legal analysis of the development of the legal and policy frameworks in the cases of Morocco and Cape Verde with an empirical study of the implementation of Mobility Partnerships projects The analysis demonstrates that Mobility Partnerships despite their non binding nature have legal and policy relevance for these third countries with regard to the regulation of migration asylum human trafficking and even labour law As such this book makes a contribution to the understanding of the interplay between the interests of EU Member State and third country actors in the implementation of the Mobility Partnerships The book will be a key resource for academics and students focusing on Migration Law EU Studies Geopolitics and African Studies The empirical approach will also appeal to policy makers international organisation representatives and NGOs
