Charter School Report Card Shawgi Tell, 2016-04-01 What is a charter school Where do they come from Who promotes them and why What are they supposed to do Are they the silver bullet to the ills plaguing the American public education system This book provides a comprehensive and accessible overview and analysis of charter schools and their many dimensions It shows that charter schools as a whole lower the quality of education through the privatization and marketization of education The final chapter provides readers with a way toward rethinking and remaking education in a way that is consistent with modern requirements Society and its members need a fully funded high quality public education system open to all and controlled by a public authority Our Nation's Schools--a Report Card United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee to Investigate Juvenile Delinquency, 1975 Spanish and Academic Achievement Among Midwest Mexican Youth Patricia MacGregor-Mendoza, 1999 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Nation's Report Card, 2005 The purpose of Fourth Grade Students Reading Aloud NAEP 2002 Special Study of Oral Reading is to examine aspects of oral reading performance accuracy rate and fluency that cannot be observed from results of the main NAEP National Assessment of Educational Progress reading assessment The results provided here are intended to inform educators and researchers about these three aspects of fourth graders oral reading performance and how they relate to their overall reading ability as measured by the 2002 reading assessment Pg iii The Other Side of the Report Card Maurice J. Elias, Joseph J. Ferrito, Dominic C. Moceris, 2015-12-14 To better serve the whole child look at the whole report card Although parents and teachers spend more time in conferences talking about behavior than they do about rubrics and test scores too many teachers are still guessing when it comes to using outdated behavior ratings and comments to describe the whole child With this book you ll take report cards to the next level integrating social emotional learning and character development into any grading system Resources include Guided exercises for analyzing existing report cards Suggested report card designs Tips on improving teacher parent communication Case studies Testimonials from teachers and students Nation's Report Card: Economics 2006 Darvin M. Winick, 2008-03 Developments in School Finance, 1998 Starting Up Lisa Arrastia, Marvin Hoffman, 2015-04-24 Starting Up is a collection of first person accounts by some of the best known founders of new schools in America Providing the kind of knowledge that only experience can teach it is an invaluable resource for anyone in the process of or thinking about opening a new school as well as those interested in the politics of today s era of new school development The authors share how they worked to make their educational aspirations a reality while wrestling with social and economic obstacles such as the distressed state of the communities in which these schools operated and the constant competition for resources Starting Up tells real stories that capture the rich sense of possibility that currently exists for urban education Book Features Behind the scenes accounts from the founders of innovative K 12 schools created to better serve primarily poor communities across the country Lessons learned from school leaders including both the rewards and challenges associated with starting a new school An introduction by Pedro Noguera that situates start ups within current economic and political realities Lisa Arrast a is the middle school principal at United Nations International School in New York Her work in the classroom is the focus of the Emmy nominated PBS documentary Making the Grade Marvin Hoffman is the founding director of The University of Chicago Charter School North Kenwood Oakland campus and the associate director of the University s Urban Teacher Education Program These are educators who recognize that although urban public schools are often deeply flawed and dysfunctional they don t have to be and they are educators who act on the belief that it is possible to create schools that nurture and support the hopes and aspirations of those they serve From the Foreword by Pedro Noguera New York University How might we reimagine our schools This book offers a guide from those who have experienced firsthand the trials and tribulations of trying to create a school from the bottom up It asks all the right questions both the practical and the pedagogical It feels like essential reading as we reconsider how our urban schools should look and function Alex Kotlowitz bestselling author of There Are No Children Here and The Other Side of the River Hanging Out Ruth Garner,2002-03-30 There is an unsettledness now in after school childcare The stay at home mom years are largely over Will children even very young children stay home alone or hang out with peers risking loneliness or engaging in problem behavior Will some new form of supervised care emerge The authors in this collection have spent time in community after school programs and have learned what happens there The authors suggest that after school programs can be an important part of a system of childcare as long as we can find ways to build programs for small and scattered populations as well as for densely packed ones and as long as the money to fund programs can be found The money is important Many of the programs discussed in this book are specifically targeted to children from families with low incomes These are the families least likely to be able to pay for care A reader leaves this book with both anxiety and hope about the future of childcare in the United States
