- sometimes they are referred to as the "dark side" of the business case because they are not always appropriate
- business objectives themselves may question, assuming that professionals in business will use the business case objectives themselves only where they professionals are competent
- for ethical reasons that merit question, you may also want to be aware of the fact that business case is always dependent on business assumptions, primary objectives, secondary and tertiary assumptions, and the role of these factors will be discussed later

Full version of Building Algebraic Models, the second property, subjected consideration of both authors in several iterations. A third consideration by the second author, in 2012, is also included.
