The Germ by Ogden Nash

A mighty creature is the germ,	a
Though smaller than the pachyderm.	a
His customary dwelling place	b
Is deep within the human race.	b
His childish pride he often pleases	c
By giving people strange diseases.	c
Do you, my poppet, feel infirm?	a
You probably contain a germ.	a

Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This landmark volume is the first to bring together leading scholarship on children's and young adult literature from three intersecting disciplines Education English and Library and Information Science Distinguished by its multidisciplinary approach it describes and analyzes the different aspects of literary reading texts and contexts to illuminate how the book is transformed within and across different academic figurations of reading and interpreting children's literature Part one considers perspectives on readers and reading literature in home school library and community settings Part two introduces analytic frames for studying young adult novels picturebooks indigenous literature graphic novels and other genres Chapters include commentary on literary experiences and creative production from renowned authors and illustrators Part three focuses on the social contexts of literary study with chapters on censorship awards marketing and literary museums The singular contribution of this Handbook is to lay the groundwork for colleagues across disciplines to redraw the map of their separately figured worlds thus to enlarge the scope of scholarship and dialogue as well as push ahead into uncharted territory Primary English: Knowledge and Understanding Jane Medwell, David Wray, George Moore, Vivienne Griffiths, 2024-05-18 The essential subject knowledge text for primary English Secure subject knowledge and understanding is the foundation of confident creative and effective teaching The trainee teacher's guide to all the subject knowledge required to teach primary English Includes practical and reflective tasks to help deepen your understanding and self assessment tests to check your knowledge and identify areas where more study is needed This 10th edition has been updated throughout and is now linked to the ITT Core Content Framework Love to Write! (ENHANCED eBook) Cindy Barden, 1995-03-01 Activities to stretch imaginations and acquire critical thinking skills Reproducible prose and poetry exercises for metaphors and similes limericks haiku letters editorials tall tales myths and legends An extensive Teacher Notes section literature references vocabulary and other extras It's easy to teach - Poetry Shelagh Moore, Kate Wright, 2013-03-11 This great resource demonstrates ways of introducing children to the delights of poetry It is for teachers who are not necessarily literacy specialists and offers a route through the different types of poetry that Key Stage 1 children will meet in their wider reading It's easy to teach Poetry offers easy to teach topic sessions that link across the curriculum and are supported by worksheets resources and examples of poetry that can be used in a variety of ways Children will develop their creativity speaking reading and writing skills whilst enjoying playing with words Forty Days and One Night James William Kelly Jr., 2016-09-30 Forty Days and One Night is a compilation of poems intended to be used as a motivational aid in the writings of other poets from the novice on up This collection is a sample of examples of different poetry types and styles Rhyming non rhyming happy sad simple complex multiple rhyming schemed haiku romantic faith based and story poems are the bulk of this set of examples The straightforward eight syllable poem or eight syllablur has been included to point out how simple and repetitive this form can be Complex multiple rhyming schemed poems are the highlight of this collection and are each very different from one another The intent here is to encourage poets to be original and explore new and unique writing styles A well written poem should compare to the sounds of children playing the wind in the trees and the music made by tires on a distant highway These sounds and others should bring pen to paper inspiring one to turn black and white into a vibrant rainbow of words As there is are good and bad music stories and feelings there are also good and bad poems Write rewrite read and reread don't be satisfied with average or mediocre writings The poet is the writer's writer specializing in arranging words in more than just a readable format but in a vividly colorful and musical way without the paint brush or the orchestra When a poem is completed it should be flawless and fulfilling to the author Feelings will flow as well as the words This collection consists of three groups of poems The first is a set of eighteen poems titled A

Love Story Inspired by life's rollercoaster ride through love and heartbreak It classically begins with boy meets girl and a shared romantically passionate love A love filled with hopes and dreams that could last forever if not for the promiscuous desires of a selfish young man The pain and anguish felt by him is heart wrenching and ends with him as a lonely old man filled with fond memories and a relentless quest for love and passions of the heart A life filled with good intentions selfish mistakes and a lust for love tainted at times leaving this man old and lonely Throughout his life's story death is mentioned in seven of the eighteen poems he is heartbroken to the point of suicidal contemplations yet he drives onward Though at times life can sometimes seem like a downward spiral there is always something to live for or look forward to and thankfully he realizes this before it is too late Part two is a set of worldly writings with an emphasis on the wide variety of topics to pen poems about There are so many inspirations yet so little time Easily an entire volume could be written about God or love but expand the imagination into a world of talking frogs children playing flowing waters disease and laughter Put yourself in the shoes of a man being released from prison or a poor rich man walking home in the rain Dream imagine feel Express all of this and more with the mere stroke of a pen Give this magical mystical form of self expression to the world responsibly and lovingly Share what is within you with those who surround you Finally we all believe in something and so our beliefs are written so that they may be shared with others We write about what we believe in hopes that some good will come of it and so I share my faith both lovingly and passionately I believe what I believe as well as you believe what you believe My intentions aren't to push you or persuade you into or convince you to change what or who you are I am only sharing what I have faith in I will admit though that I do hope and pray the best for everyone and that these poems of faith were written for all of you as well with that intent I love you all and I hope you enjoy reading this book as much as I enjoyed writing it Oral Poetry and Narratives from Central Arabia, Volume 3 Bedouin Poets of the Dawāsir Tribe Marcel Kurpershoek, 2022-06-27

This third volume in the author's series Oral Poetry Narratives from Central Arabia presents and analyses the work of four contemporary Bedouin poets of the Daw sir tribe in southern Najd The introductory part discusses the poetry within the context of the Najdi oral tradition the poets role in tribal society and their mirroring of this society's self image against the background of its rapid economic social and political transformation and its relation with the Saudi State It is followed by the Arabic Text of the poems in transcription based on taped records with the English translation on the facing page This is complemented by a substantial glossary cross referenced to the Arabic Text other glossaries and works on the Najdi dialect and poetic idiom as well as corresponding Classical Arabic lexical materials Eddic poems Guðbrandur
