Roman Long Shot:

Cinema, State Socialism and Society in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, 1917-1989 Sanja Bahun, John Haynes, 2014-07-25 This book presents a comprehensive re examination of the cinemas of the Soviet Union and Central and Eastern Europe during the communist era It argues that since the end of communism in these countries film scholars are able to view these cinemas in a different way no longer bound by an outlook relying on binary Cold War terms With the opening of archives in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union much more is known about these states and societies at the same time the field has been reinvigorated by its opening up to more contemporary concepts themes and approaches in film studies and adjacent disciplines Taking stock of these developments this book presents a rich varied tapestry relating specific films to specific national and transnational circumstances rather than viewing them as a single monolithic Cold War Communist cinema

New Hollywood Cinema Geoff King, 2002 Addresses the stylistic industrial and socio historical contexts of the New Hollywood cinema identifying its distinctive characteristics and its points of similarity with the Hollywood of the past Topics include the industrial context to the blockbuster format of contemporary Hollywood the frameworks of authorship genre and stardom through which New Hollywood films have been produced and consumed and the growing importance of small screen media to the overall economy of Hollywood Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Roman Long Shot Elaine B. Johns, 2014-10-21 A historical romance set in Italy in 1960 Based on the author's life this story takes the reader on a journey through a beautiful time in history The culture of Rome becomes one of the main characters forming the backdrop for the beautiful but penniless Lucia to fall in love with William the well to do man from America Against the wishes of William's overbearing father Joseph Lucia and William face insurmountable odds to be together A true tale to the testament of love and the incredible universe that supports it

Shakespeare on Screen : The Roman Plays , Is there a specificity to adapting a Roman play to the screen This volume interrogates the ways directors and actors have filmed and performed the Shakespearean works known as the Roman plays which are in chronological order of writing Titus Andronicus Julius Caesar Antony and Cleopatra and Coriolanus In the variety of plays and story lines common questions nevertheless arise Is there such a thing as filmic Romanness By exploring the different ways in which the Roman plays are re interpreted in the light of Roman history film history and the Shakespearean tradition the papers in this volume all take part in the ceaseless investigation of what the plays keep saying not only about our vision of the past but also about our perception of the present
