Human Service Program Planning Through a Social Justice Lens Irwin Nesoff, 2022-04-19 Human Service Program Planning Through a Social Justice Lens provides a foundation in social justice to students while developing practical skills and knowledge about the steps and tasks involved in planning social programs Through the parallel process of contextualizing social issues while teaching the process of program planning students will develop a perspective on the need for social justice planning and its impact on marginalized communities and populations The textbook explores current concepts and approaches to understanding social issues and involving impacted communities and individuals These include Intersectionality Appreciative Inquiry Participatory Planning and Visioning which serve to challenge preconceptions while coupling these with the step by step approach to planning using the Logic Model Utilizing meaningful examples to demonstrate how social justice planning can be implemented Human Service Program Planning Through a Social Justice Lens is appropriate for students of social work as well as practitioners in human services public administration and public health

A Practical Guide to the Science and Practice of Afterschool Programming Joseph L. Mahoney, Gina Warner, 2015-01-12 Closing the gap between scientific research on afterschool programming and the practices occurring in these settings is the goal of this volume Both sources of knowledge are critical to developing the afterschool workforce's ability to provide high quality programming On the one hand this means afterschool staff should not work with young people until they have been adequately prepared which includes training in evidence based practices and properly supervised On the other hand it requires that scientists understand and study those aspects of afterschool programming most relevant to the needs of practitioners This volume includes perspectives from the afterschool workforce scientists who discuss the current research and the practitioners who know how afterschool programs operate in practice This is the 144th volume of New Directions for Youth Development the Jossey Bass quarterly report series dedicated to bringing together everyone concerned with helping young people including scholars practitioners and people from different disciplines and professions

Implementation Monitoring and Process Evaluation Ruth P. Saunders, 2015-04-01 This practical guide helps readers understand and use the steps that program planners and evaluators take in implementing and monitoring a new program policy or practice in an organizational setting The book covers the entire process from planning to carrying out the plan and summarizing reporting and using the results A wide range of real world examples in the book are drawn from health education non profit organizations and public administration and an extended case study Your Turn boxes and worksheet templates help readers apply concepts to their own projects Ideal for practitioners researchers and students this book can be used as a primary text for a process evaluation or an implementation monitoring course or as a supplemental text in a broader program evaluation course
