Crafting History Albena Yaneva,2020-11-15

What constitutes an archive in architecture What forms does it take What epistemology does it perform What kind of craft is archiving Crafting History provides answers and offers insights on the ontological granularity of the archive and its relationship with architecture as a complex enterprise that starts and ends much beyond the act of building or the life of a creator In this book we learn how objects are processed and catalogued how a classification scheme is produced how models and drawings are preserved and how born digital material battles time and technology obsolescence We follow the work of conservators librarians cataloguers digital archivists museum technicians curators and architects and we capture archiving in its mundane and practical course Based on ethnographic observation at the Canadian Centre for Architecture and interviews with a range of practitioners including Ivar Siza and Peter Eisenman Albena Yaneva traces archiving through the daily work and care of all its participants scrutinizing their variable ontology scale and politics Yaneva addresses the strategies practicing architects employ to envisage an archive based future and tells a story about how architectural collections are crafted so as to form the epistemological basis of architectural history
