 Aline Rousselle,2013-01-07 Porneia means fornication unchastity desire for another s body Drawing on Roman and Greek works of science medicine gynecology and law and on Christian and pagan religious texts Aline Rousselle discovers the intimate fears passions superstitions and ambitions of the people of the Mediterranean world during the first four centuries AD The first part of the book describes Roman notions of male and female sexuality attitudes to fertility inheritance child care and training legal restraints on sexual behavior concubinage and divorce and the extraordinary rituals of orgy castration and sacrifice associated with ancient rites of fertility and spirituality Yet the sexual problems of antiquity will be seen in many respects to be almost exactly those of the contemporary West from fear of impotence to the concern of parents about teenage misbehavior The second part of the work is concerned with the impact of Christian ideas upon a settled pagan tradition Abstinence once associated with the enhancement of fertility becomes the key to salvation The first monastic regimes and the means by which men and women curtailed and overcame their desire for one another are described in detail Centuries of concern with fertility became in this revolutionary period an obsession with chastity in this world and a secure place in the next This is a tour de force of scholarship and historical anthropology The author s argument may be controversial but few can fail to be fascinated by the evidence she marshals to support it Cosmos Louis Bouyer,1988

Louis Bouyer one of the 20th century giants of Catholic theology here addresses a breathtaking range of questions related to the world the history of origin studies from cosmogonic myth to philosophical cosmologies from magic to mysticism Science myth philosophy theology poetic experience and technology here constantly rub elbows Through it all he explores the insightfulness of Christian revelation penetrating the mystery as a reflection of the mystery of that other cosmos it reflects the inner being of God the creator Louis Bouyer is a priest theologian teacher and writer Die Welt Der Farben Adolf
