Science Paper3 Zim:

Resources in Education, 1991 Natural Resource-Based Conflicts in Rural Zimbabwe Joshua Matanzima, Patience Chadambuka, Kirk Helliker, 2024-08-02 This book investigates the range of conflicts over land and other natural resources in contemporary Zimbabwe considering the different forms these conflicts take and the ensuing outcomes Zimbabwe is a country rich in natural resources including land wildlife minerals and water resources These resources are integral to the formal and informal livelihoods of most Zimbabweans as well as supporting many key industries Wildlife land and water resources are also embedded in indigenous knowledge systems religious beliefs and rituals in many rural communities forming an important part of people's identity and sense of belonging However this book demonstrates the ways in which rural communities are being denied access to these resources and being displaced by extractive companies and the government Their response is often to turn to violence to try to reclaim their lands Drawing on original empirical research from different conflicts across Zimbabwe the book also considers the issue in the context of problems such as climate change human wildlife conflicts and politico economic crises This book will be useful to policy makers students conservationists and academics across the fields of sociology human geography development political science and environment studies

Reforming Science Teacher Education Programs in the STEM Era Sulaiman M. Al-Balushi, Lisa Martin-Hansen, Youngjin Song, 2023-06-07 This edited book explores different international practices in reforming science teacher education programs for STEM education Incorporating case studies in Asia the Middle East Africa Europe North America and South America the contributors emphasise the large variety in STEM teacher preparation Including science centric versions of STEM programs as well as more integrated models of STEM this contextual diversity will help readers learn about the design opportunities and challenges of STEM teacher preparation in a variety of circumstances in order to innovate and improve STEM education more broadly

The Coronavirus Crisis and Challenges to Social Development Maria do Carmo dos Santos Gonçalves, Rebecca Gutwald, Tanja Kleibl, Ronald Lutz, Ndangwa Noyoo, Janestic Twikirize, 2022-01-03 This book is a novel contribution to academic discourses on the coronavirus COVID 19 crisis and how it has impacted societies globally It proffers an overview on the social development and political measures from both the Global North and Global South to prevent COVID 19's spread It illuminates major social political and economic challenges that already existed in different contexts and which are also currently being amplified by COVID 19 Curiously this global pandemic has opened spaces for different actors across the globe to begin to fundamentally question and challenge the hegemony of the Global North which sometimes is evident in social work Linked to the foregoing and while reflecting beyond the pandemic and into the future the book proposes that social work must become more political at all levels and strive to transform societies global social development efforts and economic and health systems This contributed volume of 38 chapters discusses and analyses ethical social sociological social work and social development issues that complement and enrich available literature in the socio political economics public health medical ethics and political science It provides various case studies which should enable readers to gain insights into how countries have responded to the pandemic and learn how COVID 19 negatively impacted countries in different parts of the world This book also provides a platform for the articulation of neglected and marginalized voices such as those of indigenous populations the poor or oppressed The chapters are grouped according to three main themes as they relate to research on the COVID 19 pandemic and social work in Africa Asia Europe Latin America and North America Analysis Social Issues and the COVID 19 Pandemic Strategies and Responses in Social Work Globally and Locally Outlook Looking Ahead Beyond the Pandemic Intended to engage a global diverse and interdisciplinary audience The Coronavirus Crisis and Challenges to Social Development is a timely and relevant resource for academics students and researchers in inter alia Social Work Philosophy Sociology Economics and Development Studies

School Science Practical Work in Africa Umesh Ramnarain,2020-06-01 School Science Practical Work in Africa presents the scope of research and practice of science practical work in African schools It brings together prominent science educators and researchers from Africa to share their experience and findings on pedagogical innovations and research informed practices on school science practical work The book highlights trends and patterns in the enactment and role of practical work across African countries Practical work is regarded as intrinsic to science teaching and learning and the form of practical work that is strongly advocated is inquiry based learning which signals a definite paradigm shift from the traditional teacher dominated to a learner centered approach The book provides empirical research on approaches to practical work contextual factors in the enactment of practical work and professional development in teaching practical work This book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of science education and educational policy Mapping research and innovation in the Republic of Zimbabwe Lemarchand, Guillermo A.,Schneegans, Susan,2014-08-11 Land and Agrarian Reform in Zimbabwe Sam Moyo,Walter Chambati,2013-05-13 The Fast Track Land Reform Programme implemented during the 2000s in Zimbabwe represents the only instance of radical redistributive land reforms since the end of the Cold War It reversed the racially skewed agrarian structure and discriminatory land tenures inherited from colonial rule The land reform also radicalised the state towards a nationalist introverted accumulation strategy against a broad array of unilateral Western sanctions Indeed Zimbabwes land reform in its social and political dynamics must be compared to the leading land reforms of the twentieth century which include those of Mexico Russia China Japan South Korea Taiwan Cuba and Mozambique The fact that the Zimbabwe case has not been recognised as vanguard nationalism has much to do with the intellectual structural adjustment which has accompanied neoliberalism and a hostile media campaign This has entailed dubious theories of neopatrimonialism which reduce African politics and the state to endemic corruption patronage and tribalism while overstating the virtues of neoliberal good governance Under this racist repertoire it has been impossible to see class politics mass mobilisation and resistance let alone believe that something progressive can occur in Africa This book comes to a conclusion that the Zimbabwe land reform represents a new form of resistance with distinct and innovative characteristics when compared to other cases of radicalisation reform and resistance The process of reform and resistance has entailed the deliberate creation of a tri modal agrarian structure to accommodate and balance the interests of various domestic classes the progressive restructuring of labour relations and agrarian markets the continuing pressures for radical reforms through the indigenisation of mining and other sectors and the rise of extensive albeit relatively weak producer cooperative structures The book also highlights some of the resonances between the Zimbabwean land struggles and those on the continent as well as in the South in general arguing that there are some convergences and divergences worthy of intellectual attention The book thus calls for greater endogenous empirical research which overcomes the pre occupation with failed interpretations of the nature of the state and agency in Africa

Sustainable and Dynamic Graduate Employability Mona Khare, 2023-09-22 This volume presents a theoretical and strategic discussion on the linkages between sustainable graduate employability skill building and economic growth With case studies from India South Africa Zimbabwe Taiwan England Germany the United States United Arab Emirates Australia and Asian countries it looks at the skills training and education landscape around the continents examines the state of employment and offers case specific recommendations The book analyses the role of higher education and vocational education policies and strategies in integrating skill training in education in order to achieve quality education and sustainable employment for all An important critique of skills training education policy and employment planning the volume will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of sustainable development development studies public policy political economy labour studies and education It will also be useful for policymakers The Zimbabwe Science News ,2002

Improving Health, Nutrition, and Population Outcomes in Sub-Saharan Africa ,2005 Annotation This book takes an in depth look at health nutrition and population challenges faced by Sub Sharan Africa particularly how disease malnutrition and high fertility affect poverty reduction
