James Wilson,2022-04-26 Technology advances are making tech more human This changes everything you thought you knew about innovation and strategy In their groundbreaking book Human Machine Accenture technology leaders Paul R Daugherty and H James Wilson showed how leading organizations use the power of human machine collaboration to transform their processes and their bottom lines Now as new AI powered technologies like the metaverse natural language processing and digital twins begin to rapidly impact both life and work those companies and other pioneers across industries are tipping the balance even more strikingly toward the human side with technology led strategy that is reshaping the very nature of innovation In Radically Human Daugherty and Wilson show this profound shift fast forwarded by the pandemic toward more human and more humane technology Artificial intelligence is becoming less artificial and more intelligent Instead of data hungry approaches to AI innovators are pursuing data efficient approaches that enable machines to learn as humans do Instead of replacing workers with machines they re unleashing human expertise to create human centered AI In place of lumbering legacy IT systems they re building cloud first IT architectures able to continuously adapt to a world of billions of connected devices And they re pursuing strategies that will take their place alongside classic winning business formulas like disruptive innovation These against the grain approaches to the basic building blocks of business Intelligence Data Expertise Architecture and Strategy IDEAS are transforming competition Industrial giants and startups alike are drawing on this radically human IDEAS framework to create new business models optimize post pandemic approaches to work and talent rebuild trust with their stakeholders and show the way toward a sustainable future With compelling insights and fresh examples from a variety of industries Radically

Human will forever change the way you think about practice and win with innovation Secondhand Adam Minter, 2019-11-12 Revelatory terrifying but ultimately hopeful Elizabeth Kolbert Pulitzer Prize winning author of THE SIXTH EXTINCTION From the author of Junkyard Planet a journey into the surprising afterlives of our former possessions Downsizing Decluttering Discarding Sooner or later all of us are faced with things we no longer need or want But when we drop our old clothes and other items off at a local donation center where do they go Sometimes across the country or even halfway across the world to people and places who find value in what we leave behind In Secondhand journalist Adam Minter takes us on an unexpected adventure into the often hidden multibillion dollar industry of reuse thrift stores in the American Southwest to vintage shops in Tokyo flea markets in Southeast Asia to used goods enterprises in Ghana and more Along the way Minter meets the fascinating people who handle and profit from our rising tide of discarded stuff and asks a pressing question In a world that craves shiny and new is there room for it all Secondhand offers hopeful answers and hard truths A history of the stuff we've used and a contemplation of why we keep buying more it also reveals the marketing practices design failures and racial prejudices that push used items into landfills instead of new homes Secondhand shows us that it doesn't have to be this way and what really needs to change to build a sustainable future free of excess stuff Business Korea, 1990 Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 1998
