

Ch. 11 Language & Society Chapter - The Cultural? Language by Bartholomew 2016 Ed 10th

Definition: Language: An arbitrary, conventionalized, structured system of symbols that serves as a means of communication

→ Communication: the way that people interact with each other. Language is the most common way that people interact with each other.

- Arbitrary: A word or symbol that has no inherent meaning. It is a sound or a picture that is used to represent something.
- Conventionalized: A word or symbol that is used by a group of people in a particular way. It is a shared understanding of what the word or symbol means.
- Structured: A system of words and symbols that are organized in a particular way. It is a set of rules that govern how the words and symbols are used.
- System: A set of words and symbols that are used to communicate. It is a collection of related elements that work together to form a whole.
- Symbol: A word or symbol that represents something. It is a sign or a mark that is used to represent an idea or a thing.
- Meaning: The idea or thing that a word or symbol represents. It is the significance or the value that is attached to a word or symbol.
- Communication: The process of exchanging information between two or more people. It is the act of sending and receiving messages.
- Language: A system of words and symbols that is used to communicate. It is a structured system of arbitrary, conventionalized symbols that serves as a means of communication.

What makes a language? Is it just the words? Or is it the way they are used?
