THINK PALESTINE VOLUME IV Dr. Jamil E. Effarah, 2025-02-21
Finding solutions to the Palestinians' dilemma is to think fairly about Palestine. To THINK PALESTINE is to understand the key to solving that region's problems, including the US one-sided and blind supports to Israel. The weekly articles reflect comments on occurring events and are full of knowledge and facts. According to readers, every article enhanced journalistic accuracy, historical correctness and a living memory. Dr. Effarah started writing in 1952 while a student at the American University of Beirut (AUB). As an Arab American independent thinker, he judges events according to their merits while acting as a participant observer of the one-sided American policy toward the Middle East that serves the interests of Israel. He records and highlights the facts in an attempt to find the key to unlocking the Palestinian-Arab and Israeli conflicts. His personal feelings as a survivor of the Palestinian holocaust of 1948 and his interpretations of the proceedings represent a major part of the events that took place in that period.

Transnational Television in Europe Jean K. Chalaby, 2009-02-19 Today transnational TV networks count among television's most prestigious brands and rank among Europe's leading TV channels. This is the first dynamically told story of the extraordinary journey of transnational television in Europe from struggling origins to its present-day boom. It is based in extensive research into the international television industry and makes full use of its author's remarkable access to leading industry figures from Sky and Turner to Discovery and BBC World. The tale begins with a few cross-border TV channels who fought hostile governments, faced antagonism from the broadcasting establishment and provoked the contempt of advertisers. But Jean Chalaby argues the planets came into alignment for pan-European television in the late 1990s when a transnational shift in European broadcasting was produced. He shows how transnational television and globalization have transformed one another and how transfrontier TV networks reflect and help sustain a global economic order in which the connection between national territory and patterns of production and distribution have broken down.
