Classroom Assessment & Grading that Work Robert J. Marzano, 2006 Robert J Marzano distills 35 years of research to bring you expert advice on the best practices for assessing and grading the work done by today s students Ready for What? M. Elizabeth Graue, 1993-01-01 This book looks at readiness from a different perspective arguing that we must move away from the readiness as child characteristic so prevalent in education and the popular press Instead readiness is explained as an idea constructed by parents teachers and children as they interact in their neighborhoods and communities Graue describes three communities in the same school district a middle class suburban town of professionals a rural working class community and a group of Hispanic working class families making their way through their children s kindergarten experiences In each setting the local meaning of readiness is the underlying theme in the actions taken by parents and their attitudes about their children s first public school experience The Other Side of the Report Card Maurice J. Elias, Joseph J. Ferrito, Dominic C. Mocer, 2015-12-14 To better serve the whole child look at the whole report card Although parents and teachers spend more time in conferences talking about behavior than they do about rubrics and test scores too many teachers are still guessing when it comes to using outdated behavior ratings and comments to describe the whole child With this book you ll take report cards to the next level integrating social emotional learning and character development into any grading system Resources include Guided exercises for analyzing existing report cards Suggested report card designs Tips on improving teacher parent communication Case studies Testimonials from teachers and students The Leaders of Their Own Learning Companion Ron Berger, Anne Vilen, Libby Woodfin, 2019-10-01 A New Companion to Leaders of Their Own
