Dear Admissions Committee,

It is my great pleasure to recommend Jonathan Baker for admission to the University of Connecticut's Mechanical Engineering Department. I have known Jon for 3 years and was delighted to serve as both his AP Physics teacher and Robotics club adviser at Greenwich High School. During that time, I watched Jon grow into an outstanding individual who excels in both his academic and personal pursuits.

As Jon's teacher and adviser, I witnessed his extraordinary ability to quickly understand advanced physics concepts and then adeptly apply them to real world situations first hand. His senior year robotics project was particularly impressive. In it he designed, built, and programmed a robot that was capable of climbing any surface, no matter how smooth.

Jon's academic accomplishments are rivaled only by his personal strengths. His compassion and charisma are beyond his years and he is well-loved by his peers, as well as all those who had the pleasure of teaching him. Whenever any of his fellow students are having a difficult time or feeling down, he never fails to step in with an encouraging word and a smile.

I highly recommend you accept Jon into your Mechanical Engineering program. I am confident he will make an excellent addition to your university's community. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions regarding his character or past academic work.

Sincerely,

Edmund Dudley

Trivializing Teacher Education Dale D. Johnson, Bonnie Johnson, Stephen J. Farenga, Daniel Ness, 2005-07-21 Trivializing Teacher Education The Accreditation Squeeze presents a critical analysis of the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education NCATE This accreditation organization has been in existence for 50 years and claims to accredit approximately 700 teacher education programs that prepare two thirds of the nation's teachers There is no convincing research however that NCATE's stamp of approval makes a difference in teacher preparation programs or in beginning teachers' competencies There is evidence that NCATE is masterful at self promotion marketing and aligning itself with policy makers and politicians This book illustrates the questionable NCATE processes and requirements and exposes the exorbitant costs accrued by universities seeking NCATE accreditation It points out that the NCATE standards do not address the major issues that impact teaching and learning The book highlights NCATE's support of teacher testing in the face of evidence that such tests lack predictive validity It shows how NCATE is reaching out to accredit for profit organizations and how it sends its evaluators to review international programs in the Middle East The book calls on NCATE to make the professional backgrounds of its examiners reviewers board members and staff transparent It addresses the attention teacher educators must devote to mindless trivial NCATE demands that usurp time that should be spent on their students and their research This book urges teacher educators college faculties and administrators state education officials and legislators parents of school age children and concerned citizens to open their eyes to this powerful organization NCATE and to examine what it has done to teacher education in the last half century
