Dear Name of Head of Admission Committee:

I am very happy to announce that I will be providing full financial support for my nephew Name during his course at university starting on [Date].

The cost of tuition is about $10,000 per semester so it's important we're able to keep this up! My bank statement from Bank shows how much money has been set aside each month until graduation in two-year's time which should enough given our current economic climate

I hope you'll agree with me when we say: "deposited into an account"

Sincerely,

Beyond the Shelley Circle Sharon L. Joffe, 2025-07-25 Beyond the Shelley Circle The Clairmont Family and Its Descendants will interest Shelley circle researchers life writing scholars and nineteenth century historians alike The Clairmont family's connection to Mary Shelley began in 1801 when her father William Godwin married Mary Jane Vial The combined family then included the future author of Frankenstein plus her half sister Fanny who had been left motherless by the death of Mary Wollstonecraft and Vial's two children Charles and Claire Clairmont a fifth child William Godwin Junior was born in 1803 In 1816 Mary would marry Percy Shelley thereby creating the extended Wollstonecraft Godwin Shelley Clairmont kinship circle Despite the often difficult relationship between Vial and her stepdaughters the children in the blended family were close into adulthood Beyond the Shelley Circle traces this history and that of the Clairmont family into the twenty first century through various personal writings It includes in German transcription and English translation with editorial notes the previously unpublished journal of Ottilia Clairmont the wife of Charles's son which describes her life in the Banat region in the 1860s It uses this document and others for a fulsome discussion of life writing in the period among women and in literary circles The book further connects the kinship coterie to other family studies situating them in a vital tradition within literary studies Family Life and School Achievement Reginald M. Clark, 2015-07-31 Working mothers broken homes poverty racial or ethnic background poorly educated parents these are the usual reasons given for the academic problems of poor urban children Reginald M Clark contends however that such structural characteristics of families neither predict nor explain the wide variation in academic achievement among children He emphasizes instead the total family life stating that the most important indicators of academic potential are embedded in family culture To support his contentions Clark offers ten intimate portraits of Black families in Chicago Visiting the homes of poor one and two parent families of high and low achievers Clark made detailed observations on the quality of home life noting how family habits and interactions affect school success and what characteristics of family life provide children with school survival skills a complex of behaviors attitudes and knowledge that are the essential elements in academic success Clark's conclusions lead to exciting implications for educational policy If school achievement is not dependent on family structure or income parents can learn to inculcate school survival skills in their children Clark offers specific suggestions and strategies for use by teachers parents school administrators and social service policy makers but his work will also find an audience in urban anthropology family studies and Black studies Raza Sí, Migra No Jimmy Patiño, 2017-10-18 As immigration from Mexico to the United States grew through the 1970s and 1980s the Border Patrol police and other state agents exerted increasing violence against ethnic Mexicans in San Diego's volatile border region In response many San Diego activists rallied around the leadership of the small scale print shop owner Herman Baca in the Chicano movement to empower Mexican Americans through Chicano self determination The combination of increasing repression and Chicano activism gradually produced a new conception of ethnic and racial community that included both established Mexican Americans and new Mexican immigrants Here Jimmy Patiño narrates the rise of this Chicano Mexicano consciousness and the dawning awareness that Mexican Americans and Mexicans would have to work together to fight border enforcement policies that subjected Latinos of all statuses to legal violence By placing the Chicano and Latino civil rights struggle on explicitly transnational terrain Patiño fundamentally reorients the understanding of the Chicano movement Ultimately Patiño tells the story of how Chicano Mexicano politics articulated an abolitionist position on immigration going beyond the agreed upon assumptions shared by liberals and conservatives alike that deportations are inherent to any solutions to the still burgeoning immigration debate Community Networks and Cultural Practices in Twentieth-Century Romania Mária Szikszai, 2023-06-12 Community Networks and Cultural Practices in Twentieth Century Romania Paper Based Cultures in the Writings of a Catholic Priest presents an anthropological interpretation of 2 400 documents left behind by a Hungarianized Swabian Catholic priest living in Romania during one of the Eastern European dictatorships of the twentieth century This book addresses what the pre digital paper based culture was like in Eastern Europe from the point of view of the protagonist a Catholic priest who lived in a predominantly Orthodox country The author calls the twentieth century the era of the typewriter Mária Szikszai's questions refer to both the epoch and the micro universe of these people What was the world like in which the protagonist and the other people he was in contact with lived How did they live their daily lives How did they make important decisions What pains hopes and joys did they have What did they have to say and what were they silent about This volume presents an anthropological incursion into the life of an Eastern European man who lived almost throughout the twentieth century during which time he tried to document the era he was living in Family Reunification in Europe Ellen Desmet, Milena Belloni, Dirk Vanheule, Jinske Verhellen, Ayse Güdük, 2024-09-10 This book provides a multi disciplinary investigation of family reunification laws policies and practices across the European Union Family reunification the possibility for family members to re unite in a country where one of them is residing has been high on the political agenda Building on original empirical research with families and practitioners as well as in depth doctrinal analyses the book explores the fragmentation of legal rules the gaps between formal regulations and practices and their consequences for families across borders Different contributions in the volume point to the growing inequalities among and within applicant families based on residence status gender location citizenship and socio economic resources due to the family reunification regimes currently in place The book enhances interdisciplinary dialogue by providing clear insights into the specific contribution of migration law private international law and social scientific analyses to the study of family reunification The book is aimed at researchers working on the topic of family reunification as well as students of law and socio legal studies and practitioners in the field of migration Gender, Ethnicity, and the State Juanita Díaz-Cotto, 1996-01-01 Examines the experiences of Latina and Latino prisoners in New York maximum security prisons offering a realistic interpretation of the relationship that exists between prisoners the state and the civil society within which prisons operate Psychosocial Advances in Neuro-Oncology Tamara Ownsworth, Suzanne Chambers, Haryana Dhillon, 2016-02-12 Neuro oncology is a rapidly growing field concerned with scientific developments and clinical applications related to neuroscience neuropsychology cancer and oncology Neuro oncological disorders include cancers that directly affect the central nervous system CNS such as brain tumours and brain metastases and non CNS cancers with treatments that produce neurocognitive impairment To date the biological mechanisms and neuropsychological effects of brain tumour and cancer have been the dominant focus in neuro oncology literature In terms of psychosocial aspects of care people s understanding of their diagnosis and symptoms and how they cope with their illness has a major influence on their emotional well being and quality of life The development and evaluation of psychological and supportive care interventions for people with brain tumour is an area of emerging research and of high interest to health professionals working in the field This Research Topic aims to enhance understanding of the psychological and social consequences of brain tumour and other cancers impacting neurocognitive function It also aims to showcase new developments in assessment and psychosocial intervention approaches Employee Assistance Program ,1980 Wife Rape Raquel Kennedy Bergen, 1996-05-21 In our 20 years of campaigning to change the laws in 50 states women often called to report their neglect

Jonathan P. Tomes,1992 Becoming Bourgeois Frank J. Byrne,2006-10-20 Becoming Bourgeois is the first study to focus on what historians have come to call the middling sort the group falling between the mass of yeoman farmers and the planter class that dominated the political economy of the antebellum South Historian Frank J Byrne investigates the experiences of urban merchants village storekeepers small scale manufacturers and their families as well as the contributions made by this merchant class to the South s economy culture and politics in the decades before and the years of the Civil War These merchant families embraced the South but were not of the South At a time when Southerners rarely traveled far from their homes merchants annually ventured forth on buying junkets to northern cities Whereas the majority of Southerners enjoyed only limited formal instruction merchant families often achieved a level of education rivaled only by the upper class planters The southern merchant community also promoted the kind of aggressive business practices that New South proponents would claim as their own in the Reconstruction era and beyond Along with discussion of these modern approaches to liberal capitalism Byrne also reveals the peculiar strains of conservative thought that permeated the culture of southern merchants While maintaining close commercial ties to the North southern merchants embraced the religious and racial mores of the South Though they did not rely directly upon slavery for their success antebellum merchants functioned well within the slave labor system When the Civil War erupted southern merchants simultaneously joined Confederate ranks and prepared to capitalize on the war's business opportunities regardless of the outcome of the conflict Throughout Becoming Bourgeois Byrne highlights the tension between these competing elements of southern merchant culture By exploring the values and pursuits of this emerging class Byrne not only offers new insight into southern history but also deepens our understanding of the mutable ties between regional identity and the marketplace in nineteenth century America

Family Properties Beryl Satter, 2010-03-02 Part family story and part urban history a landmark investigation of segregation and urban decay in Chicago and cities across the nation The promised land for thousands of Southern blacks postwar Chicago quickly became the most segregated city in the North the site of the nation's worst ghettos and the target of Martin Luther King Jr's first campaign beyond the South In this powerful book Beryl Satter identifies the true causes of the city's black slums and the ruin of urban neighborhoods throughout the country not as some have argued black pathology the culture of poverty or white flight but a widespread and institutionalized system of legal and financial exploitation In Satter's riveting account of a city in crisis unscrupulous lawyers slumlords and speculators are pitched against religious reformers community organizers and an impassioned attorney who launched a crusade against the profiteers the author's father Mark J Satter At the heart of the struggle stand the black migrants who having left the South with its legacy of sharecropping suddenly find themselves caught in a new kind of debt peonage Satter shows the interlocking forces at work in their oppression the discriminatory practices of the banking industry the federal policies that created the country's shameful dual housing market the economic anxieties that fueled white violence and the tempting profits to be made by preying on the city's most vulnerable population Family Properties Race Real Estate and the Exploitation of Black Urban America is a monumental work of history this tale of racism and real estate politics and finance will forever change our understanding of the forces that transformed urban America Gripping This painstaking portrayal of the human costs of financial racism is the most important book yet written on the black freedom struggle in the urban North David Garrow The Washington Post

The Roman Mourner Valerie M. Hope, 2025-06-12 To date mourning has not featured prominently in studies of ancient Roman society and this book redresses this by presenting a comprehensive analysis of who mourners were and what mourners did as well as investigating the social cultural and ritual significance of mourning It brings together varied evidence ranging from literature and art to epigraphy which helps to illustrate the rituals of mourning Valerie M Hope addresses fundamental questions about how mourning was expressed displayed performed and experienced via the body and in turn what mourning can reveal about Roman society In previous literature on the topic roles played by mourners in funeral rituals and commemorative acts may be acknowledged but there has been little engagement with the varied emotional and physical behaviours of mourners When mourning has been considered the emphasis has predominantly fallen on gender and specific literary genres There have hitherto been few attempts to unite the diverse evidence for Roman mourning to consider different literary genres simultaneously or to evaluate how mourning was presented through material culture The evaluation of social expectations legal regulations and idealised roles across a diverse evidence base and time frame make this volume the first full and systematic study of mourning in the Roman world Letters, Kinship, and Social Mobility in Nigeria Olufemi Vaughan,2023-08-15 In 2003 Olufemi Vaughan received from his ninety five year old father Abiodun a trove of more than 3 000 letters written by four generations of his family in Ibadan Nigeria between 1926 to 1994 The men and women who wrote these letters had emerged from the religious social and educational institutions established by the Church Missionary Society the preeminent Anglican mission in the Atlantic Nigerian region following the imposition of British colonial rule Abiodun recruited to be a civil servant in the colonial administration became the patriarch of a prominent family with historical roots in both West Africa and the Americas his family was the subject of articles in Ebony and Jet as well as in acclaimed histories Reading deeply in these letters Olufemi realized he had a unique set of sources that could be used to illuminate everyday life for this important segment of Nigerian society Letter writing was a dominant form of communication for western educated elites in colonial Africa especially in Nigeria Exposure and an altruistic sense of nationalism were among the factors that led people to begin exchanging letters particularly in their interactions with British colonial authorities Through careful textual analysis and broad contextualization Vaughan reconstructs dominant storylines including themes such as people s relationships with colonial authorities and bureaucracy ideas about faith and kinship nationalism and communal development Vaughan brings his prodigious skills as a historian to bear on this wealth of information bringing to life a portrait at once intimate and expansive of a community during a transformative period in African history Poverty and Sickness in Modern Europe Andreas Gestrinch,Elizabeth Hurren,Steven King,2012-06-28 Explores the experiences of the sick poor in modern Europe via an analysis of pauper narratives Statement of Information United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary,1974 The Fundamentals of Family Mediation John Michael Haynes,1994-05-31 Although there are a number of mediation books none provide a step by step description of each stage in the process This book designed as a mediator s handbook can be used by the practicing mediator to solve almost any problem It can also be used by trainers to provide more basic information to trainee mediators thus allowing them more time for practicing the skill in training The book will also be of interest to students and practitioners of family therapy to social workers and counselors
