Empowerment in Post-Apartheid South Africa Agatha Herman, 2017-07-28 Despite the promise and optimism surrounding the post apartheid transition South African society continues to be highly racialised in its discourses identities and practices even within the very strategies that aim to change power relations and heal racialised divisions Renowned for its brutal past practices the wine industry in South Africa has long been associated with white power and black exploitation and remains dogged by continuing allegations of poor working conditions and labour abuses Through in depth longitudinal fieldwork this book considers how different ethics interact and draws attention to the positive changes and continuing development challenges faced in South Africa Situating practice at its heart it brings a novel everyday and micro scale dimension to understandings of empowerment in the post apartheid South African wine industry It develops a critical analysis of the interplay between practice as scaled and inherently spatial and discourse to conceptualise how big concepts such as empowerment are articulated materialised and experienced at the ground level Through this it gives voices to the marginalised who experience empowerment setting these within the context of their relations with the other stakeholders who shape this engagement This book contributes to broader critical social science debates around ethical development and questions of power and empowerment in development interventions This is critical to reducing the disconnection between policy aims and realities within development and empowerment initiatives as well as enabling ethical commodities to be strategic in retaining their appeal throughout their networks Knowledge Steven Puttick, Victoria Elliott, Jenni

Ingram, 2024-06-13 Key to teacher education is the knowledge base of the teacher educator and the ways in which knowledge is conceptualised This book explores how ideas about knowledge are used in teacher education to critically examine what knowledges are valued across research policy and practice The authors explore international and interdisciplinary perspectives on the nature of knowledge and what counts as knowledge and how these perspectives on knowledge translate into teacher education with a final chapter dedicated to exploring consequences for practice Introducing Human

Geographies Kelly Dombroski, Mark Goodwin, Junxi Qian, Andrew Williams, Paul Cloke, 2024-07-09 Introducing Human Geographies is a travel guide into the academic subject of human geography and the things that it studies The coverage of the new edition has been thoroughly refreshed to reflect and engage with the contemporary nature and direction of human geography This updated and much extended fourth edition includes a diverse range of authors and topics from across the globe with a completely revised set of contributions reflecting contemporary concerns in human geography Presented in four parts with a streamlined structure it includes over 70 contributions written by expert international researchers addressing the central ideas through which human geographers understand and shape their subject It maps out the big foundational ideas that have shaped the discipline past and present explores key research themes being pursued in human geography s various sub disciplines and identifies emerging collaborations between human geography and other disciplines in the areas of technology justice and environment This comprehensive stimulating and cutting edge introduction to the field is richly illustrated throughout with full colour figures maps and photos The book is designed especially for students new to university degree courses in human geography across the world and is an essential reference for undergraduate students on courses related to society place culture and space The Political Economy of Work in the Global South Anita Hammer,Adam Fishwick,2020-03-28 Part of the Critical Perspectives on Work and Employment series this edited collection brings together contributions from leading international scholars to initiate an important dialogue between labour process analysis and scholarship on work in the Global South This book characterises the forms of work and labour process that characterise globalising capitalism today and addresses core analytical concerns within Labour Process Theory and research on work in the South It explores how a wide range of production relations in the Global South ranging from formal to informal employment and self employment are embedded in wider social relations of gender caste religion and ethnicity and are related to wider patterns of commodification and resistance Drawing on cutting edge research the book s chapters consider a diverse range of working situations covering migrant workers in the Middle East commercial surrogacy work in India and cooperative garment workers in Argentina In offering a novel reading of the political economy of work in the Global South and shedding light on lesser considered fields of work and worker organization this volume will provide new insights for making sense of the changing world of work for students scholars labour activists and practitioners alike CAA2015. Keep The Revolution Going Stefano Campana,Roberto Scopigno,Gabriella Carpentiero,2016-03-31 This volume brings together all the successful peer reviewed papers submitted for the proceedings of the 43rd conference on Computer Applications and Quantitative Methods in Archaeology that took place in Siena Italy from March 31st to April 2nd 2015 Handbook of Research on Software for Gifted and Talented School Activities in K-12 Classrooms Ikuta, Shigeru,2019-12-27 As technology continues to play a pivotal role in society education is a field that has become heavily influenced by these advancements New learning methods are rapidly emerging and being implemented into classrooms across the world using software that is low cost and easy to handle These tools are crucial in creating skillful learning techniques in classrooms yet there is a lack of information and research on the subject The Handbook of Research on Software for Gifted and Talented School Activities in K 12 Classrooms is an essential reference source that discusses newly developed but easy to handle and less costly software and tools and their implementation in real 21st century classrooms worldwide The book also helps and supports teachers to conduct gifted and talented school activities in K 12 classrooms Featuring research on topics such as educational philosophy and skillful learning techniques this book is ideally designed for software developers educators researchers psychologists instructional designers curriculum developers principals academicians and students seeking coverage on the emerging role that newly developed software plays in early education

web an open subset of the riemann surface for the multivalued function $f(z) = \log z$ in mathematics particularly in complex analysis a riemann surface is a one dimensional complex manifold loosely speaking this means that any riemann surface is formed by gluing together open subsets of the complex plane $\mathbb{C}$ using holomorphic gluing maps
