occurs but one's commitment to the Other is such that one empathizes in the face of empathic distress. One's empathic commitment to the survivor enables the survivor to recover her/his humanness, integrity and relatedness. This work engages how the impact and cost of empathic distress affect the different aspects of empathic receptivity, empathic understanding, empathic interpretation and empathic responsiveness, delivering a breakthrough and transformation in relating to the Other. The intersection of literature and empathy is the place in which the literary artwork transfigures the face of trauma, overcoming empathic distress and allowing radical empathy to enable the fragmented Other to recover her/his integrity. Additionally, the book does not merely tell the reader about radical empathy in the context of the literary artwork; it delivers an experience of radical empathy in context in empathy's receptivity, understanding, interpretation and responsiveness.
