Nursing Research: Reading, Using, and Creating Evidence(Second Edition) Janet Houser, PhD, RN, Handbook of Research on Driving Transformational Change in the Digital Built Environment Underwood, Jason,Shelbourn, Mark,2021-05-07 The construction industry is amidst a digital transformation that is focused on addressing well documented issues and calls for significant improvements and changes through increased productivity whole life value client focus reduction of waste and being more sustainable The key aspect to driving change and transformation is the education and upskilling of the required workforce towards developing the required capacities Various approaches can be taken to embed digital construction within education and through collaborative efforts in order to drive change and facilitate improvements The Handbook of Research on Driving Transformational Change in the Digital Built Environment focuses on current developments in practice and education towards facilitating transformation in the built environment This book provides insight from a practice perspective in relation to the client s understanding digitally enabled collaboration interoperability and open standards and maturity capability Covering topics that include digital transformation and construction digitally enabled infrastructure building information modelling collaborative digital education and the digital built environment this book is an ideal reference source for engineers professionals and researchers in the field of digital transformation as well as doctoral scholars doctoral researchers professionals and academicians Qualitative Methods in Africana Studies James L. Conyers Jr.,2016-07-20 This survey of methodology provides a framework for understanding Africana Studies Correlating this book to research and writing in Africana Studies helps to extend the perplexity paradox and parley of social science and humanistic research This book attempts to answer what is Africana Studies with reference to an interdisciplinary body of knowledge Africana Studies is the global Pan Africanist study of African phenomena interpreted from an Afrocentric perspective Among those scholars who contribute to this interdisciplinary body of knowledge perspective signals the commonality in the school of thought This book offers general definitions and descriptions of the qualitative and quantitative research The Dynamics of Changing Higher Education in the Global South Busani Mpofo,Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni,2020-06-29 Today there are generally universities in Africa rather than African universities The legitimacy of the university in Africa is under serious questions now because of its complicity in racism patriarchy sexism colonialism capitalism genocide epistemicide linguicide culturecide and alienation In other words the university in Africa as we know it today is elitist and exclusionary Therefore rethinking the idea of the university is fundamental to overcoming its current deficiencies in the Global South This volume bringing together a number of national case studies and macro analyses on the dynamics of changing higher education in the Global South gestures towards the desired imagined decolonial African university which should be a site of multilingualism where African indigenous languages cosmologies and ontologies become a central part of its identity and soul intolerant of epistemicides linguicides and cultural imperialism but a site of cognitive and social justice that fully embraces the idea that all human beings are born into valid useful relevant and legitimate knowledge systems
