Together with your students, analyze the results of your pre-assessment to determine where they are in terms of background knowledge and skills; their strengths and weaknesses as your bases for planning instructional activities.

Learning Goals and Targets

Based on the objectives of the lesson and results of the pre-assessment 1 and 2, let your students define their personal goals and targets to achieve at the end of this module. Ask them to write their goals/targets in their journal / art notebook.

Make sure that all your students are able to define their own goals and targets. Tell them to monitor the progress of their targets as you go on with the lesson.

(Note: This activity will not be graded and you will only check. This will give you information on the students' prior knowledge and will help you determine what areas you will need to focus more on.)

Part I. What to KNOW

(In this part of the module, the learners are provided with structured learning experiences that will pre-asses their level of understanding, activate their prior
