Subject: Job Justification for [Position Title]

Dear [Supervisor's Name],

I am writing to request your consideration and support for the creation of a new position within our [Department/Team]. I believe that this position is essential to our department's success and will contribute significantly to the overall growth and efficiency of our organization.

Job Overview:

- Position Title: [Proposed Position Title]
- Purpose/Role: Provide a concise description of the position and its purpose. Explain how it aligns with the goals and objectives of our department and organization.
- Key Responsibilities: Outline the primary responsibilities and tasks that the position would entail. Highlight any specific areas where the role would address critical needs or gaps in our current operations.

Justification:

- Increased Workload: Describe the increasing workload or additional responsibilities that have created a need for this new position. Explain how the current team is unable to manage the workload effectively without compromising quality or timely completion of tasks.
- Enhanced Efficiency: Discuss how the proposed position would enhance the efficiency and productivity of our department. Consider the potential impact on workflow, turnaround time, and customer satisfaction.
- Specialized Skills or Expertise: If the position requires specialized skills or expertise, explain how the new hire would bring valuable knowledge or qualifications that are currently lacking within the team.
- Growth and Expansion: If the organization is experiencing growth or planning expansion, emphasize how this new position would support these initiatives and ensure that we can meet the demands of increased business opportunities.

Sampling and Calibration for Atmospheric Measurements John Keenan Taylor, 1987 Documentation for Rehabilitation - E-Book Lori Quinn, James Gordon, 2024-04-12

Better patient management starts with better documentation. Documentation for Rehabilitation 4th Edition demonstrates how to accurately document treatment progress and patient outcomes using a framework for clinical reasoning based on the International Classification for Functioning Disability and Health ICF model adopted by the American Physical Therapy Association APTA. The documentation guidelines in this practical resource are easily adaptable to different practice settings and patient populations in physical therapy and physical therapy assisting. Realistic examples and practice exercises reinforce the understanding and application of concepts, improving skills in both documentation and clinical reasoning. Workbook textbook format with examples and exercises in each chapter helps reinforce understanding of concepts. Coverage of practice settings includes documentation examples in acute care, rehabilitation, outpatient, home care, nursing homes, pediatrics, school, and community settings. Case examples for a multitude of documentation types include initial evaluations, progress notes, daily notes, letters to insurance companies, Medicare documentation, and documentation in specialized settings. NEW Movement Analysis Linking Activities and Impairments content addresses issues related to diagnosis. NEW An eBook version included with print purchase provides access to all the text, figures, and references with the ability to search, customize content, make notes and highlights, and have content read aloud. Updated case examples provide clinical context for patient documentation. Revised content including updated terminology from the latest updates to the Guide to Physical Therapist Practice provides the most current information needed to be an effective practitioner. Updated references ensure content is current and applicable for today's practice.
