Dear [Mr. Caleb],

This letter is in response to your advertisement on [GetJobs.com] dated [January 31, 2050] regarding the open Church Pastor position. I believe that my credentials and qualifications match with the specifications indicated in your job description. From that, I believe I am an excellent candidate to occupy that position.

It would be a privilege to do God's work with your reputable church. Attached herewith is my resume that highlights my previous work experiences, educational background, and accomplishments. Braxton, 2010-08-01 Helpful and insightful strategies for preaching from the writings of Paul Few biblical figures are more compelling to preachers than the apostle Paul The story of his dramatic conversion on the road to Damascus is a favorite example of the way that God turns lives around His writings contain the earliest witness we have to the Christian gospel His message of God's offer of grace in the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is deeply appealing So why is it that when it comes time to choose a text for this Sunday's sermon preachers so often choose something other than Paul When Brad Braxton asked himself that question
