

2015 Sports Awards Speech

Good Evening, as my good friend and classmate, John O'Brien, mentioned, my name is Vincent LaPuma and I graduated Cathedral in 2001. When John asked me to give this speech, I admit, I was a bit hesitant. Hesitant because I am not a fan of public speaking, I never have been. I thought about it for a few days. I remembered sitting in the very seats that you are all sitting in tonight. I remembered working hard throughout the year and looking forward to the sports awards dinner. I came to the conclusion that I owed it back to Cathedral to give the speech. For all that Cathedral for me while I was here and since I graduated.

I want to speak to you tonight about being an underdog and being looked at differently by others. Two stereotypes that are almost always associated with being a Cathedral Man. I am going to speak about my family and myself as an example of that and how being a Cathedral man helps you overcome anytime you feel like that underdog, or when you feel like everyone else looks at you differently.

I grew up in Maspeth, Queens. That was where my parents bought their first home and still live in to this day. My parents migrated to New York from Sicily in the early 1970's. Not knowing English, my mother and her sisters attended Long Island City High School while my grandfather worked in the fire proofing union and my grandmother in a garment factory. Not being able to speak the language put them at an immediate disadvantage-Underdogs. They were ridiculed, teased, even abused physically at times, but they never quit. They forged on learning the English language enough to get by and achieve their goal, to graduate high school.
