

Graduation Speech

Good afternoon, dear faculty, staff, family, friends, and graduates. It is an honor to be speaking with you here today. Graduates of the class of 2012, CONGRATULATIONS!!!

While I was very honored to be invited to be the graduate speaker at the 2012 International Studies graduation ceremony, I admit that writing this speech was even harder than writing my thesis. And believe me, I would have never imagined that there would be anything harder than that. The hard part about it is that I was told that my graduation speech had to make you laugh first, then cry, and then inspire you. And it had to be short... So as you can see, that's not a very easy task to accomplish. But I'll try.

As I was thinking about this speech and reflecting on my experiences here at the Department of International Studies as a graduate student, I came up with a perfect analogy for my and my fellow
