Dear Mr. Hoppe,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally express my current situation and the difficulties I am facing, which have placed a significant burden on my financial stability.

Due to unforeseen circumstances, I have encountered substantial challenges in meeting my financial obligations. Over the past few months, I have faced a series of unexpected medical expenses that have strained my budget.

These expenses have been compounded by a recent reduction in my working hours, which has drastically affected my monthly income. As a result, I find myself in a precarious position, struggling to keep up with my regular payments and essential living costs.

I have always prioritized my responsibilities and worked diligently to maintain a stable financial situation. However, these recent events have been overwhelming, and I am seeking your understanding and support during this challenging time. I am committed to resolving my financial difficulties, and I am exploring various options to ensure that I can honor my commitments moving forward.

I kindly request your consideration for a temporary adjustment to my payment terms or a possible forbearance period that would allow me some relief as I work to stabilize my situation. I believe that with your support, I will be able to navigate through this difficult period and ultimately return to my previous financial standing.

Thank you for taking the time to consider my request. I am hopeful for a positive response and am willing to discuss this matter further at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Aloysius Bertrand s Gaspard de la Nuit 1842 is a familiar title to music lovers thanks to Ravel s piano work of the same name and to specialists of French literature especially those interested in Baudelaire s prose poetry Yet until very recently the collection and its author have generally been viewed almost exclusively through the prism of their pioneering role in the development of the prose poem By placing Bertrand back in his original context adopting a comparative approach and engaging with recent critical work on the collection Valentina Gosetti proposes a substantial reassessment of Gaspard de la Nuit and promotes a new understanding of Bertrand in his own terms rather than those of his successors Through his playful and ironic reinterpretation of Romantic clichés and his overt defiance of the boundaries of poetry and beauty Bertrand emerges as a fascinating figure in his own right This book is one of the first full length studies of Bertrand's work and it will be of particular interest to specialists of the nineteenth century and of provincial literature and to students of nineteenth century poetry or the fantastic
