Middle-Class Writing in Late Medieval London Malcolm Richardson, 2015-10-06 Richardson explores how a powerful culture of writing was created in late medieval London even though initially few inhabitants could actually write themselves Whilst previous studies have tended to focus on middle class literary reading patterns this study examines writing skills separately both from reading skills and from literature

From Pity to Pride Hannah Joyner, 2004 The antebellum South's economic dependence on slavery engendered a rigid social order in which a small number of privileged white men dominated African Americans poor whites women and many people with disabilities From Pity to Pride examines the experiences of a group of wealthy young men raised in the old South who also would have ruled over this closely regimented world had they not been deaf Instead the promise of status was gone replaced by pity as described by one deaf scion I sometimes fancy some people to treat me as they would a child to whom they were kind In this unique and fascinating history Hannah Joyner depicts in striking detail the circumstances of these so called victims of a terrible misfortune Joyner makes clear that Deaf people in the North also endured prejudice She also explains how the cultural rhetoric of paternalism and dependency in the South codified a stringent system of oppression and hierarchy that left little room for self determination for Deaf southerners From Pity to Pride reveals how some of these elite Deaf people rejected their family s and society s belief that being deaf was a permanent liability Rather they viewed themselves as competent and complete As they came to adulthood they joined together with other Deaf Americans both southern and northern to form communities of understanding self worth and independence

Personnel Information Bulletin United States. Veterans Administration,1957 Letters to his Parents Theodor W.

Adorno,2014-10-17 My dears this is but a brief note to welcome you to the new world where you are now no longer all too far away from us So begins Adorno s letter to his parents in May 1939 welcoming them to Cuba where they had just arrived after fleeing from Nazi Germany at the last minute At the end of 1939 his parents moved again to Florida and then to New York where they lived from August 1940 until the end of their lives It is only with Adorno s move to California at the end of 1941 that his letters to his parents start arriving once more reporting on work and living conditions as well as on friends acquaintances and the Hollywood stars of his time One finds reports of his collaborations with Max Horkheimer Thomas Mann and Hanns Eisler alongside accounts of parties clowning around with Charlie Chaplin and ill fated love affairs But the letters also show his constant longing for Europe Adorno already began to think about his return as soon as the USA entered the war Adorno s letters to his parents surely the most open and direct letters he ever wrote not only afford the reader a glimpse of the experiences that gave rise to the famous Minima Moralia but also show Adorno from a previously unknown very personal side They end with the first reports from the ravaged Frankfurt to his mother who remained in New York and from Amorbach Adorno s childhood paradise The Teacher's Ultimate Planning Guide Lisa Maria Burke,2002-06-17

This comprehensive manual offers step by step tools to help alleviate the strain and frustration of guesswork in teaching

Parents On Your Side Lee Canter,2009-07-01 Turn parents into partners with practical guidelines and dialogue examples that will open the door to better communication and collaboration These strategies for creating positive parental relationships will lead to a more positive effective classroom and additional support for your efforts Treatment of Psychological Distress in Parents of Premature Infants Richard J. Shaw, M.D.,Sarah Horwitz, Ph.D.,2020-10-07

Although the benefits of psychological consultation in the pediatric setting are well established a gap often exists between the demand for these services and funding We have embarked on our longstanding goal to develop a group based intervention model for parents of premature infants adapting our manual of individual trauma focused cognitive behavioral therapy to help reduce feelings of parental isolation This book describes a more global approach to psychological consultation in the NICU integrating interventions that begin prior to the infant's conception and extend well beyond the NICU hospitalization Chapter 1 provides a context and review of the medical aspects of the NICU environment and the neurodevelopmental consequences of prematurity In Chapter 2 reviews the common psychological reactions of mothers of premature infants including specific risk factors associated with maternal psychological distress It also discusses the relationship between parental posttraumatic stress and infant outcomes as it relates to such issues as breastfeeding maternal infant interaction attachment and infant development Chapter 3 describes the form and prevalence of symptoms of paternal psychological distress and outline a curriculum for a group based intervention specifically designed to address fathers concerns Chapter 4 addresses developmental care interventions that overlap with interventions more narrowly focused on parental psychological distress Chapters 5 and 6 describe our intervention model in both the individual and group therapy formats Chapter 7 addresses vulnerable child syndrome which is associated with adverse developmental outcomes in children as well as overutilization of health care resources Application of the trauma model to the concept provides a framework to understand how parental behavior is altered in the context of trauma Finally Chapter 8 discusses how to implement a psychological intervention program in the NICU that includes screening the parents of premature infants for symptoms of psychological distress
