Welcome to Classroom #532 Mrs. Miller's Grade 5

This classroom newsletter is for teachers and can be customized to update your students and their parents about your classroom news, upcoming school events, days off, homework and special assignments.

1. Homework. I had twenty-two and the next one to me had arithmetic I could clap my hands, buy English is my poorest subject. I am going to bring it up to report card if I can. When I was in the fifth grade the class brought money for a flag and when the school burned down it was not saved. So Miss Hamlin, my second grade teacher, gave it to us today and each year it will stay with us when we go higher.

2. School Events. The school children will fix their lunch and start for school when the 8:30 o'clock bell rings. The children will walk to school with each other. They will tell about the fine dinners and fine donuts that they had during the holidays. When the 8:30 o'clock bell rings for school the children will start for school with a light heart and a happy smile to keep their grades up.

3. Days Off. Every student loves days off of school plus it gives teachers a break as well.

4. Special Assignments. Do you want to notify parents about special assignments that may require extra work or attention on the students part?

5. Parent Teacher Conferences. Talk more about parent teacher conferences and what is expected and how many donuts there will be.

Summer Time Wall Painting Event

This is a spot for your article to go with the photo below. You can describe school events that took place or just inform your students and their parents about upcoming events.

I was very glad to go back to school, because I knew that I would have a new teacher named Mrs. Miller. I wanted to chat with my schoolmates and talk about how each spent their summer vacation and tell one another everything that we missed.

I am sorry to say I lost my dear school teacher who taught us before vacation. I am much pleased with our new one. She seems to take a great interest in us all. Some children were very naughty the first day of school, but I think when they become better acquainted with her they will think her as nice as our last teacher. We did not play many games the first day, but we are playing hide-and-seek today, as this is Monday. And we always play games on Mondays.

Remember to bring your favorite thing next Monday.
