Women in the Ministry of Jesus Ben Witherington, 1987-10-22 Women in the Ministry of Jesus is a study of both of Jesus' attitudes towards women as reflected in his words and deeds and of the women who were part of his ministry or who interacted with him according to the Gospel accounts. The book seeks to provide a balanced analysis of the relevant Biblical material and also the historical background necessary to illuminate the setting of the Gospel events. Particular attention is given to related issues such as Jesus' views on marriage, the family and the single life as well as his teaching on adultery, the laws of the clean and unclean and the Sabbath. Witherington concludes that Jesus cannot be categorized neatly either as chauvinist or as feminist.

Women's Words, Women's Stories Lois S. Edgerly, 1995-08 The comprehensive approach Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee, 2010-03-18 The Defence Committee report recommends that when troops are committed to operations in future, there must be robust plans to coordinate military and reconstruction efforts from the earliest stages. The next Government should lay out the requirements of the Comprehensive Approach, the combination of civilian and military actors in a counter-insurgency operation in order better to preserve all the lessons learned in the complex operations of Iraq and Afghanistan, many of them having been painfully re-learned from Bosnia, Kosovo and even Malaya. The Committee looks to the recently formed Stabilisation Unit, owned by the Department for International Development, the Foreign and Commonwealth Office and the Ministry of Defence, to maintain a capacity to deploy significant numbers of personnel for post-conflict reconstruction and to ensure that vital knowledge and skills gained during deployments in Iraq and Afghanistan are retained and built on. The Comprehensive Approach requires close work with local nationals to build up their capability and confidence in all fields including security, governance, law and order and development This must include women at all levels The Government needs to find better ways to draw on the expertise of NGOs without compromising the effectiveness and safety of aid workers on the ground      Good Housekeeping ,1892
