The following sample induction ceremony may be adapted for use on your campus; for example, many chapters include favorite and meaningful literary references as part of their induction ceremony.

Sample Induction Ceremony

Arrange audience-seating in two sections, one side for current members, and one side for non-members (including inductees and their guests). Chapter officers should be seated at a table in the front of the room.

The Secretary (or another officer) should have a membership certificate and Society pin for each inductee. A recognition ribbon in the official Society colors of cardinal red and black also may be provided. These membership materials should be on a small table in front of or next to where all the officers are seated.

The President will open the meeting and introduce current chapter officers and the Chapter Sponsor(s). If there are special guests (e.g., the department chair, a dean, department directors), they may be introduced at this time and thanked for attending the meeting.

PRESIDENT: (standing) "On behalf of the members of the [chapter name] Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta at [school name], we welcome you to this special meeting to induct new members."

"Will the Historian (or another officer) please provide a brief history of Sigma Tau Delta and our local chapter."

HISTORIAN: "Sigma Tau Delta, International English Honor Society, was founded in 1924 at Dakota Wesleyan University, to confer distinction for high achievement in English language, literature, and writing; and to foster literacy and all aspects of the discipline of English. With over 800 chapters in large and small, public and private, colleges and universities in the U.S., Europe, the Middle East, and the Caribbean, Sigma Tau Delta is the most active honors organization in our field and one of the largest member organizations of the Association of College Honor Societies.

In addition to the prestige of membership in an international honor society, there are many other benefits of affiliation: thousands of dollars in scholarship and award opportunities, regional and national conferences, and internship and publication possibilities. One especially noteworthy benefit of membership is that students are invited to submit papers for presentation at Sigma Tau Delta's annual spring convention, held each year in one of the Society's six regions of the country. Students selected to present their work in this national venue also have the opportunity to win convention writing awards and to attend presentations and workshops by nationally recognized authors such as Neil Gaiman, Ursula Le Guin, and U.S. Poet Laureates Natasha Trethewey and Kay Ryan. In summary, Sigma Tau Delta is about recognition and opportunity, and is dedicated to making a real difference in the life of each and every Sigma Tau Deltan.

Our local chapter, the [chapter name] Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, was founded in _____.
