

A Prayer for Graduation

Heavenly Father,

Give grace and courage to the ones who have worked hard and now greet this special time of graduation.

We thank you for protecting and guiding them to this point. All praise and glory to You!

Inspire the graduates to put to good use all the knowledge, skills and life lessons gained through their education.

Most importantly, as they face unknown challenges moving on, help them to keep dear the greatest wisdom of all -that of knowing Jesus and the power of the Cross!

A chapter has closed and another eagerly awaits. Pave their road with opportunities and inspire them to live with hope in this incredible journey called life.

Continue to bless the graduates with love, protection, mercy, strength and wisdom.

May they live passionately to honor and glorify Your name. In Jesus' name, Amen.

You Want Me To... What? Norm Grant, 2010-04 Norm Grant's You Want Me To WHAT is all about taking the chances which change our lives Through the course of the book Grant both figuratively and literally jumps off of a cliff to move forward in his life while encouraging us to do the same Mingling personal stories with quotations from famous authors and the Bible itself Grant brings to light the choices we all face on a daily basis Whether the choices are big or small he helps to point out that God is at work in each and every one of them At the same time he helps us to realize that it is our big choices and chances which reveal God's will for our lives With a well researched blend of stories from pop culture as well as ancient scripture Grant leads us down an easy to read path asking us to listen to the still small voice God's gentle whisper which can lead us to hidden blessings He reminds us that God is not only in the miracles which appear on the news but also in the small miracles we experience every day

Argumentation in Practice Frans H. Van Eemeren, Peter Houtlosser, 2005-01-01 Since the late 1950s the study of argumentation has developed from a marginal part of logic and rhetoric into a genuine interdisciplinary academic discipline After having first been primarily concerned with creating an adequate philosophical perspective on argumentation argumentation theorists have gradually shifted their focus of attention to a more immediate concern with the ins and outs of argumentative praxis What exactly are the characteristics of situated argumentative discourse in different argumentative action types How is the discourse influenced by institutional and contextual constraints In what way can prominent cases of argumentative discourse be fruitfully analysed Argumentation in Practice aims to provide insight into some important facets of argumentative praxis and the different ways in which it can be approached The first part of this volume Conceptions of problems in argumentative practice introduces useful theoretical perspectives The second part Empirical studies of argumentative practice contains both empirical studies of a general kind and several types of specific case studies
