Experience: Off To The Park

Date: 19-July-2019

Written by: Lorina

We had such a great afternoon at the park. Hand in hand with our friends we walked to the park. We saw many things along way flowers, pebbles and many different types of rocks. When we got to the park we saw the tall trees, with their leaves swaying in the breeze. We saw many different types of flowers, pink and yellow and dandelions. They smelt so nice and sweet. We touched the rocks we found on the ground. Some were rough and some were smooth. Puddles of water were collected in crevices amongst the rocks, we took our shoes off and danced in the puddles of water. Cool water trickling between our toes. We played ball games. We threw, we caught, we kicked. Oh what a wonderful day at the park!

Young Children's Community Building in Action Louise Gwenneth Phillips, Jenny Ritchie, Lavina Dynevor, Jared Lambert, Kerry Moroney, 2019-07-04 Rethinking the concepts of citizenship and community in relation to young children this groundbreaking text examines the ways in which indigenous understandings and practices applied in early childhood settings in Australia and New Zealand encourage young children to demonstrate their care and concern for others and so in turn perceive themselves as part of a larger community Young Children's Community Building in Action acknowledges global variations in the meanings of early childhood education of citizenship and community building and challenges widespread invisibility and disregard of Indigenous communities Through close observation and examination of early years settings in Australia and New Zealand chapters demonstrate how practices guided by Aboriginal and M ori values support and nurture children's personal and social development as individuals and as citizens in a wider community Exploring what young children's citizenship learning and action looks like in practice and how this may vary within and across communities the book provides a powerful account of effective pedagogical approaches which have been long excluded from mainstream dialogues Written for researchers and students of early childhood education and care this book provides insight into what citizenship can be for young children and how Indigenous cultural values shape ways of knowing being doing and relating

Democratic Policies and Practices in Early Childhood Education Linda Mitchell, 2018-10-24 This book uses case studies of Aotearoa New Zealand policy formulation and practice to explore early childhood education and care ECEC as a site for democratic citizenship and social justice Addressing fundamental questions about the purpose of education it argues for explicit values focusing on children and childhood as a basis for ECEC policy to replace discourses of economic investment and child vulnerability that are dominant within policy goals in many countries A commitment to democracy and equity is a good place to start Aotearoa New Zealand is of special interest because of its world renowned ECE curriculum Te Wh riki which is based on principles of social justice respect for rights and an aim to support children growing up in a democracy The curriculum upholds M ori rights to tino rangatiratanga absolute authority over their lives and resources Yet Aotearoa New Zealand's extreme market policies and harsh labour laws during recent periods run contrary to ideals of democracy and are puzzlingly inconsistent with curriculum principles The book starts with an analysis and critique of global trends in ECEC in countries that share capitalist mixed economies of welfare and where competition and marketisation have become dominant principles It then analyses ideas about children childhood and ECEC within a framework of democracy going back to the Athenian origins of democracy and including recent literature on meanings and traditions of democracy in education The book uses vivid examples from researching curriculum pedagogy and assessment practices within Aotearoa New Zealand ECEC settings and collective action to influence policy change in order to illustrate opportunities for democratic education It concludes by examining what conditions might be needed for integrated and democratic ECEC provision in Aotearoa New Zealand and what changes are necessary for the future It offers a compass not a map it points to promising directions and provides insights into issues in ECEC policy and practice that are of current global concern I'm Not Getting Them Ready for Kindergarten Kristen Day,2024-12-30 Teachers don t have to cut out penguin beaks anymore You can put your weather bear back in the cupboard or bring it outside and you can take the behavior chart off the wall This book is your permission slip to break up with outdated and ineffective practices in your early childhood classroom and replace them with the magic of play based learning This helpful guide challenges outdated preschool practices in a kind and compelling way inviting you to reflect on your own practices and adjust them based on current research and what is truly developmentally appropriate for young children It provides tools and language to use to show the people outside your classroom parents administrators other teachers down the hall that play is learning Each chapter is practical conscience and meant to be read in the order and at the pace that is best for you and your class Full of stories from the author s own play journey I m Not Getting Them Ready for Kindergarten is key reading for early childhood educators who are ready to step outside the restrictions of an unnecessarily academic system and settle into the magic of play and child led learning Assessment and Data Systems in Early Childhood Settings Claire McLachlan,Tara McLaughlin,Sue Cherrington,Karyn Aspden,2023-01-01 This book describes the use of data systems in early childhood settings birth to eight years for the purposes of assessment evaluation and curriculum planning It presents an international collection of research examining ways in which teachers and researchers have revisited notions of what constitutes effective assessment revised ways in which they assess children s learning and development and use the knowledge gained for curriculum planning It offers insights into contemporary research on how teachers and children are engaging with data systems as part of effective assessment and how these approaches influence practice This book presents recent theorizing and examples of research which have investigated innovative approaches to assessment using data systems in early years settings It represents both early childhood and junior primary contexts and includes research which focusses on teachers perspectives and reflections on use of data systems It also examines research which reflects on what children gain from being involved in these data systems Documentation in Institutional Contexts of Early Childhood Maarit Alasuutari,Helga Kelle,Helen Knauf,2020-04-28 Internationally documentation has gained importance in institutional contexts of early childhood during the last 20 years This edited volume illuminates different practices and aspects of documentation in early childhood and provides theoretically informed analytical perspectives on documentation in childhood institutions Whilst drawing on different national and early service contexts the edited volume explores the ways in which documentation may be consequential in childhood and in the practices of early childhood professionals The different chapters examine assessment and normativity in documentation children s participation in it and the impact of documentation on professionalism The edited volume is targeted to students researchers and professionals in the field of education and social sciences Programming and Planning in Early Childhood Settings Leonie

Arthur, Bronwyn Beecher, Elizabeth Death, Susan Dockett, Sue Farmer, 2017-08-07 Programming Planning in Early Childhood Settings explores a range of approaches to curriculum and to documenting children's learning in early childhood settings. This valuable resource for early childhood education students and practitioners provides a broad view of the concepts and issues in early childhood curriculum. Chapters reflect ongoing discussions about what is meant by the terms planning and programming in the context of early childhood: what is authentic curriculum for young children and effective teaching strategies to extend young children's learning. The strong focus on sociocultural theories of learning promotes awareness of children's diverse experiences, competencies and learning styles and helps readers recognise the need for collaborative partnerships between educators, children and families in order to develop appropriate programs. Thoroughly revised and updated, this new edition shows how chapters of the text are relevant to the Australian Professional Standards for teachers and highlights connections to the school-based context. Numerous real-life examples, reflections, articles and case studies assist students to understand a variety of educational theories, philosophies and frameworks. Throughout the book, there is a focus on the processes of reflection, evaluation and ongoing improvement.

Fostering Comprehension by Reading Books to Kindergarten Children Jana M. Mason, 1988 The New Education, 1893 Teaching Children to Read

National Reading Panel (U.S.), 2000 Kindergarten Readiness for All Melissa Stormont, Daniel R. Cohen, 2021-08-06

This book provides a framework for all kindergarten teachers to use to support young children in their transition to kindergarten. It offers an overview of the importance of this transition for young children and shows how their success can be supported through the use of specific supports. The topics covered here include the various ways to involve children and their families, use assessment information and use a collection of strategies for children based on their needs. The book is comprehensive in covering a multitude of needs children and their families may have, from basic support needs to creative and tailored ways to involve families and to using specific social skills templates to teach and support social skills for young children. The final chapter of the book also addresses the need to determine children who need more focused supports and provides concrete strategies to use for children with more intensive needs.

Introduction to Early Childhood Education and Care Carole Massing, Mary Lynne Matheson, 2021-07-26 Ensure children of all backgrounds can thrive with an intercultural approach to early childhood education. In a multicultural society such as Canada's, early childhood educators work with children and families from a diverse mix of ethnicities, religions, languages, abilities and lifestyles. Diversity enriches the experience of children and educators alike in these environments, but it can also present challenges in supporting each child's growth and learning. In Introduction to Early Childhood Learning and Care, early learning specialists Carole Massing and Mary Lynne Matheson present an intercultural perspective as a foundation of equitable outcomes in early childhood education, but just what does that look like? An intercultural approach involves the respectful exchange of ideas between people from diverse backgrounds, leading to mutual trust and deeper relationships. Guided by a diverse team of reviewers, this book examines the concepts approaches and strategies that every early childhood educator needs to know to provide sensitive culturally responsive care for children and their families Topics include The theoretical bases for an intercultural approach to early childhood education and care The factors that impact a child s physical cognitive social and emotional development How to create environments that enhance children s wellbeing and affirm their identity How to support children s creativity literacy and inquiry skills through an intercultural lens The skills responsibilities and challenges of working as an early childhood educator
