The Economy of Prestige James F. English, 2008-12-15 This is a book about one of the great untold stories of modern cultural life the remarkable ascendancy of prizes in literature and the arts Such prizes and the competitions they crown are almost as old as the arts themselves but their number and power and their consequences for society and culture at large have expanded to an unprecedented degree in our day In a wide ranging overview of this phenomenon James F English documents the dramatic rise of the awards industry and its complex role within what he describes as an economy of cultural prestige Observing that cultural prizes in their modern form originate at the turn of the twentieth century with the institutional convergence of art and competitive spectator sports English argues that they have in recent decades undergone an important shift a more genuine and far reaching globalization than what has occurred in the economy of material goods Focusing on the cultural prize in its contemporary form his book addresses itself broadly to the economic dimensions of culture to the rules or logic of exchange in the market for what has come to be called cultural capital In the wild proliferation of prizes English finds a key to transformations in the cultural field as a whole And in the specific workings of prizes their elaborate mechanics of nomination and election presentation and acceptance sponsorship publicity and scandal he uncovers evidence of the new arrangements and relationships that have refigured that field Country Life, 1905 Richard Shiff: Writing After Art Richard Shiff, 2023-05-16 A broad and deep anthology of critic and art historian Richard Shiff's most influential writings which have shaped our understanding of twentieth and twenty first century art Elegantly designed as intended for broad readership including art historians art critics artists among other lovers of art this volume is a must read experience with pleasure and discovery Phong Bui The Brooklyn Rail In his engaging and often strikingly deep observations

Art Into Pop Simon Frith, Howard Horne, 2016-04-14 This book first published in 1987 tells the intriguing and culturally complex story of the art school influence on postwar British popular music Following Romantic attitudes from life class to recording studio it focuses on two key moments the early 1960s when art students like John Lennon and Eric Clapton begin to play their own versions of American rock and blues and inflected youth music with Bohemian dreams and the late 1970s when punk musicians emerged from design courses and fashion departments to disrupt what were by then art rock routines Sixties rock Bohemians and seventies pop Situationists were in their different ways trying to solve the art students perennial problem how to make a living from their art Art Into Pop shows how this problem has been shaped by the history of British art education from its nineteenth century origins to current arguments about pure and applied training In their simultaneous pursuit of authenticity and artifice art school musicians exemplify the postmodern condition the collapse of any distinction between high and low culture the confusions of personal and commercial creativity And so high pop theorists rub shoulders here with low pop practitioners experimental musicians debate avant garde ideas with corporate packagers and artistic integrity becomes a matter of making oneself up

Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-Garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020-02-27 This is a book about artistic modernism contending with the historical transfigurations of modernity As a conscientious engagement with modernity's restructuring of the lifeworld the modernist avant garde raised the stakes of this engagement to programmatic explicitness But even beyond the vanguard the global phenomenon of jazz combined somatic assault with sensory tutelage Jazz like the new technologies of modernity re calibrated sensory ratios The criterion of the new as self making also extended to names pseudonyms and heteronyms The protocols of modernism solicited a pragmatic arousal of bodily sensation as artistic resource validating an acrobatic sensibility ranging from slapstick and laughter to the pathos of bereavement Expressivity trumped representation The artwork was a diagram of perception not a mimetic rendering For artists the historical pressures of altered perception provoked new models and Ezra Pound's slogan Make It New became the generic rallying cry of renovation The paradigmatic stance of the avant garde was established by Futurism but the discovery of prehistoric art added another provocation to artists Paleolithic caves validated the spirit of all over composition unframed and dynamic Geometric abstraction Constructivism and Purism and Surrealism were all in quest of a new mythology Making it new yielded a new pathos in the sensation of radical discrepancy between futurist striving and remotest antiquity The Paleolithic cave and the USSR emitted comparable siren calls on behalf of the remote past and the desired future As such the present was suffused with the pathos of being neither but subject to both Poultry, Garden and Home ,1899 The National Builder ,1903 The Bible in Photography Sheona Beaumont,2024-01-25 Sheona Beaumont addresses the untold story of biblical subjects in photography She argues that stories characters and symbols from the Bible are found to pervade photographic practices and ideas across the worlds of advertising and reportage the book and the gallery in theoretical discourse and in the words of photographers themselves Beaumont engages interpretative tools from biblical reception studies art history and visual culture criticism in order to present four terms for describing photography s latent spirituality the index the icon the tableau and the vision Throughout her journey she includes lively discussion of selected fine art photography dealing with the Bible in surprising ways from images by William Henry Fox Talbot in the 19th century to David Mach in the 21st Far from telling a secular story photography and the conditions of its representations are exposed in theological depth Beaumont skillfully interweaves discussion of the images and theology arguing for the dynamic and potent voice of the Bible in photography and enriching visual culture criticism with a renewed religious understanding Public Archaeology: Arts of Engagement Howard Williams,Caroline Pudney,Afnan Ezzeldin,2019-11-21 This collection stemming from the 2nd University of Chester Archaeology Student Conference Archaeo Engage Engaging Communities in Archaeology April 2017 provides original perspectives on public archaeology s current practices and future potentials focusing on art archaeological media strategies and subjects Robert Mapplethorpe Paul Martineau,Britt Salvesen,2016-03-15 The legacy of Robert Mapplethorpe 1946 1989 is rich and complicated triggering controversy polarizing critics and providing inspiration for many artists who followed him Mapplethorpe one of the most influential figures of his time today stands as an example to emerging photographers who continue to experiment with the boundaries and concepts of the beautiful Robert Mapplethorpe The Photographs offers a timely and rewarding examination of his oeuvre and influence Drawing from the extraordinary collection jointly acquired in 2011 by the J Paul Getty Museum and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art from The Robert Mapplethorpe Foundation as well as the Mapplethorpe Archive housed at the Getty Research Institute the authors were given the unique opportunity to explore new resources and present fresh perspectives The result is a fascinating introduction to Mapplethorpe s career and legacy accompanied by a rich selection of illustrations covering the remarkable range of his photographic work All of these beautifully integrated elements contribute to what promises to become an essential point of access to Mapplethorpe s work and practice This publication is issued on the occasion of the exhibition Robert Mapplethorpe The Perfect Medium on view at both the J Paul Getty Museum and at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art from March 15 and March 20 respectively through July 31 2016 at the Musée des Beaux Arts de Montréal from September 10 2016 through January 15 2017 and at the Art Gallery of New South Wales Sydney from October 28 2017 through February 4 2018
