Romeo And Juliet Expository:

Shakespearean Narrative R. Rawdon Wilson, 1995 The book also relates Shakespeare's understanding of the narrative in the plays to the brilliant narrative poems that he wrote in the early 1590s It also examines the narrative conventions that are used in the embedded or inset narratives in the plays Particular attention is paid to the way Shakespeare creates fictional entities such as worlds and characters in the plays A great deal of emphasis is placed on Shakespeare's innovative transformations of traditional narrative conventions

The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Edition Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2016-08-29 The third edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary American audience a selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty first century expository writing Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before a number of op ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated essayists of the modern era from James Baldwin Susan Sontag Joan Didion and Annie Dillard to Eula Biss and Ta Nehisi Coates The anthology remains broad in its thematic coverage but certain themes receive special emphasis notably issues of race class and culture in twenty first century America For the new edition the headnotes have been expanded providing students with more information as to the context in which each piece was written Questions and suggestions for discussion have been moved online to the instructor website
