Subject: Letter of Introduction - Teaching Position

Dear [Principal's Name],

I am writing to introduce myself as a highly motivated and dedicated educator, and to express my interest in a teaching position at [School Name]. With a passion for fostering a love of learning and a strong commitment to academic excellence, I am confident that my qualifications and teaching philosophy align well with the values and objectives of [School Name].

I hold a [Degree] in [Subject/Area of Specialization] from [University Name], and I am certified to teach [Grade Level or Subject]. I have [X] years of experience teaching in both [Grade Level or Subject] and [Grade Level or Subject], which has provided me with a comprehensive understanding of instructional strategies, curriculum development, and student assessment practices.

Throughout my teaching career, I have been dedicated to creating a positive and inclusive learning environment that promotes student engagement and growth. I strive to develop strong relationships with my students, fostering a supportive classroom community that encourages collaboration, critical thinking, and creativity. By utilizing a variety of instructional techniques and incorporating technology effectively, I aim to meet the diverse learning needs of every student under my guidance.

Furthermore, I strongly believe in the importance of ongoing professional development. I am committed to staying abreast of current educational research and best practices to continually enhance my teaching skills. I am eager to collaborate with fellow educators at [School Name], contributing to a culture of shared learning and instructional innovation.

Attached to this letter is my resume, which provides further details regarding my educational background, teaching experience, and professional achievements. I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to discuss my qualifications in person and to learn more about the teaching opportunities available at [School Name].

Thank you for considering my application. I am confident that my enthusiasm for education, dedication to student success, and commitment to [School Name]'s mission will make me a valuable asset to your team. I look forward to the possibility of joining [School Name] and making a positive impact on the lives of the students entrusted to our care.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at [Phone Number] or [Email Address] to arrange a meeting. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sample Teacher Introduction Letter To Parents Preschool:

Implementing Positive Behavior Support Systems in Early Childhood and Elementary Settings Melissa Stormont, 2008
The book's strengths are its practical information and the specific ways of looking at expectations and developing a common language. The forms included will be of great benefit to school teams. Susan Safarik, Supervisor, Department of Special Education, Lincoln Public Schools, NE. Provides a lot of research and breaks down the processes for implementing positive behavior supports effectively in schools. Step by step directions, sample forms, and examples make the processes easy to incorporate and understand. Julia DeGarmo, Special Education Specialist, Columbus City Schools, OH. Learn how to teach and support appropriate behavior and build confidence in young children. This easy to read resource presents the Programwide Schoolwide Positive Behavioral Support (PWSBS) system, a preventive research-based approach that helps educators teach classroom behavior skills the same way they teach academic skills. The authors outline the PWSBS model, describe the core practices, and provide case examples to aid implementation. Key features of this instruction-based system include: Differing levels of intervention to meet individual student needs; Clearly stated behavioral expectations; Consistent acknowledgment of students' mastery of expectations; Systematic use of consequences for problem behavior. This user-friendly text makes the principles of PWSBS easy to apply for educators who are committed to helping young students establish positive behavioral habits that will make learning a joy for all. The Preschool Letters and Notes to Parents Book Kathy Charner, 1989

Succeeding in the Secondary Classroom Harriett Arnold, 2001. Practical hands-on strategies to guide beginning teachers through their initial teaching experience. A roadmap to a successful journey. Michael Johnson, Principal, Alameda High School, Alameda, CA. Provides the practical support that new teachers need to help them succeed and at the same time provides the theoretical support that all teachers need to help them become truly professional educators. Marion McDowell, Former Deputy Superintendent, Sequoia Union High School District. Life-saving tools and techniques for that first year of teaching. Every day of the school year is the first day of the school year for some teacher somewhere. And whenever that first day occurs, the challenge is the same: to focus on everything and everyone: students, parents, colleagues, teaching associates, and school site administrators, and make it all work. This new book of insights and ideas is designed especially for beginning secondary teachers who want to excel during that all-important first year. Included are strategies on: What to do before the first day of school; from planning classroom design to dressing for success; Handling that first week of school; Planning for classroom instruction; Student recordkeeping; Classroom management and discipline; Working with colleagues, substitutes, and paraprofessionals; Communicating with parents and invaluable insights on self-evaluation, school politics, and finding a balance between work, home, and colleagues. Succeeding in the Secondary Classroom is a culmination of materials from master teachers who work with beginning teachers every day to help them succeed. Harriet Arnold is a veteran educator who has served as an elementary school teacher, a middle school administrator, elementary school principal, director of personnel and staff development and international consultant to schools A graduate of San Francisco State University with a B A in Social Welfare she received her Master of Education at California State University San Jose and her Doctorate with an emphasis in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of San Francisco Her professional development projects have involved training for the Ministry of Education in the Bahamas and coordinator of the Sequoia Beginning Teacher Program
