

Welcome! Help Make Your Daisy's Experience Bloom with Possibilities

Dear Daisy Friends and Family Network:

Your Girl Scout Daisy has joined a team of girls on a unique journey into the Daisy Flower Garden. As the girls explore planting, growing, and the positive values of the Girl Scout Law, they will also get their first taste of environmental stewardship.

Your active participation can make the girls' experience even more valuable and memorable. Please take a moment to review the enclosed checklist to tell us which areas you might know something about (or be willing to learn), or have time to volunteer for, so that your Daisy and her sister Girl Scouts will have the richest experience possible.

Then please identify on the enclosed Garden Project Possibilities list any garden spaces in your community that might benefit from the Daisies' help. And if you have any community contacts who might like to assist, let us know that, too.

The girls and I look forward to hearing from you—and seeing you at sessions throughout the journey.

Sincerely,

[YOUR NAME]

Jacobson, 2007-12-30 Children play a crucial role in today's economy According to some estimates children spend or influence the spending of up to 500 billion annually Journalists sociologists and media reformers often present mass marketing toward children as a recent fall from grace but the roots of children's consumerism and the anxieties over it date back more than a century Throughout the twentieth century a wide variety of groups including advertisers retailers parents social reformers child experts public schools and children themselves helped to socialize children as consumers and struggled to define the proper boundaries of the market The essays and documents in this volume illuminate the historical circumstances and cultural conflicts that helped to produce shape and legitimize children's consumerism Focusing primarily on the period from the Gilded Age through the twentieth century this book examines how and why children and adolescents acquired new economic roles as consumers and how these new roles both reflected and produced dynamic changes in family life and the culture of capitalism This volume also reveals how children and adolescents have used consumer goods to define personal identities and peer relationships sometimes in opposition to marketers' expectations and parental intentions Unending
