Trio Robert Pinget, 2005 Trio marks the first time these three shorter Pinget works are collected in a single volume From the sublime surrealism of Between Fantoine and Agapa through the Faulknerian take on rural life in That Voice to the musical rhythm and flow of Passacaglia this collection charts the varied career of one of the French New Novel's true luminaries The space between the fictional towns of Fantoine and Agapa is akin to Faulkner's Yoknapatawpha County an area where provincialism is neither romanticized nor parodied where intrigue often violent intrigue confronts the bucolic ideal held both by insiders and outsiders and where reality is shaped not by events but by talk and gossip by insinuation and conjecture Written over the course of his career these three novels are by turns hilarious and dark surreal and painstakingly accurate together they demonstrate the consistent quality of Pinget's versatility

Lhasa Robert Barnett,2010 There are many Lhasas One is a grid of uniform boulevards lined with plush hotels all night bars and blue glass fronted offices Another is a warren of alleyways that surround a seventh century temple built to pin down a supine demoness A web of Stalinist rectangular blocks houses the new nomenklatura Crumbling mansions once home to noble ministers famous lovers nationalist spies and covert revolutionaries now serve as shopping malls and faux antique hotels Each embodiment of the city partakes of the others memories whispered across time and along the city streets In this imaginative new work Robert Barnett offers a powerful and lyrical exploration of a city long idealized disregarded or misunderstood by outsiders Looking to its streets and stone Robert Barnett presents a searching and unforgettable portrait of Lhasa its history and its illegibility His book not only offers itself as a manual for thinking about contemporary Tibet but also questions our ways of thinking about foreign places Barnett juxtaposes contemporary accounts of Tibet architectural observations and descriptions by foreign observers to describe Lhasa and its current status as both an ancient city and a modern Chinese provincial capital His narrative reveals how historical layering popular memory symbolism and mythology constitute the story of a city Besides the ancient Buddhist temples and former picnic gardens of the Tibetan capital Lhasa describes the urban sprawl the harsh rectangular structures and the geometric blue glass tower blocks that speak of the anxieties of successive regimes intent upon improving on the past In Barnett s excavation of the city s past the buildings and the city streets interwoven with his own recollections of unrest and resistance recount the story of Tibet s complex transition from tradition to modernity and its painful history of foreign encounters and political experiment
