PARTICULARS OF OFFENCE(SEE SECOND SCHEDULE OF C.P.C)	On the 16th day of October, 2024 at Nakuru Law Courts, Chief Magistrate Sinore issued an order to confine the narcotic exhibits designated NO.002 in the case of Republic v. Sindiga Misc. Application 116 of 2024 to which a ruling had been issued by the said magistrate within the court premises. Incidentally, the exhibits of market value, Ksh.17,000,000 got stolen within the weekend. The Chief Magistrate's insistence to give the order withholding the exhibits contrary to section 65(f) and 68(a) of the Magistrates Registry Manual shows that she had interest in the exhibits and thus probable cause to conspire to steal the exhibits with Mr. Zubeida, a suspected drug dealer with whom the said magistrate was seen to be in close communication with through a series of meetings held in Xenon Hotel, Milimani Sub-County, Nakuru County between the 11 th and the 14 th of October consistently from 6.30 PM to 8.00 PM as recounted by witnesses and captured by CCTV footage belonging to the establishment.

Sample Charge Sheet Criminal Procedure Kenya:

Procedures in Criminal Law in Kenya Momanyi Bwonwong'a,1994 Essentials of Criminal Procedure in Kenya Patrick Kiage,2010 Written in a clear concise and engaging style this book presents the entire criminal process in a simple yet authoritative and informative way The core principles that underpin the criminal procedure their rationale and assumptions are well articulated and critiqued In addition the book presents by way of illustration a comprehensive range of the latest local judicial decisions A Handbook on Criminal Procedure in Kenya Patrick L. O. Lumumba,1998 Criminal Procedure in Uganda and Kenya Douglas Brown,1970 The Criminal Trial Process Irene Maina,2009 An Introduction to Kenya Law Kenya Institute of Administration,1975 The African Court of Justice and Human and Peoples' Rights in Context Charles C. Jalloh,Kamari M. Clarke,Vincent O. Nmehielle,2019-05-16 This volume analyses the prospects and challenges of the African Court of Justice and Human and Peoples Rights in context The book is for all readers interested in African institutions and contemporary global challenges of peace security human rights and international law This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core The Ashgate Research Companion to International Criminal Law Yvonne McDermott,2016-03-23 International criminal law is at a crucial point in its history and development and the time is right for practitioners academics and students to take stock of the lessons learnt from the past fifteen years as the international community moves towards an increasingly uni polar international criminal legal order with the International Criminal Court ICC at the helm This unique Research Companion takes a critical approach to a wide variety of theoretical practical legal and policy issues surrounding and underpinning the operation of international criminal law as applied by international criminal tribunals The book is divided into four main parts The first part analyses international crimes and modes of liability with a view to identifying areas which have been inconsistently or misguidedly interpreted overlooked to date or are likely to be increasingly significant in future The second part examines international criminal processes and procedures and here the authors discuss issues such as victim participation and the rights of the accused The third part is a discussion of complementarity and sentencing while the final part of the book looks at international criminal justice in context The authors raise issues which are likely to provide the most significant challenges and most promising opportunities for the continuing development of this body of law As international criminal law becomes more established as a distinct discipline it becomes imperative for international criminal scholarship to provide a degree of critical analysis both of individual legal issues and of the international criminal project as a whole This book represents an important collective effort to introduce an element of legal realism or critical legal studies into the academic discourse Compendium of Key Documents Relating to Human Rights and HIV in Eastern and Southern Africa ,2008 The compendium of key Documents relating to human rights and HIV in Eastern and Southern Africa provides instrument policies and cases which are relevant to HIV AIDS The Crimes and Sentencing Kai Ambos,Alexander Heinze,Peter Rackow,Eric Armbrrecht,2022 International criminal law and justice is a flourishing field which has led in recent years to new international criminal tribunals and new mechanisms for investigation and holding criminals to account These developments have in turn led to an increasing volume and greater consolidation of case law and even more scholarly attention The second edition of this volume of Kai Ambos seminal treatise has been revised and rewritten in parts to provide coverage of recent developments in the Special Part of international criminal law namely the specific crimes and sentencing Amongst other updates there are significant extensions of the discussion on sexual and gender based crimes the introduction of environmental crimes into international criminal law further elaboration on the nexus requirement in war crimes and asymmetrical conflicts e g ISIS and reference to the newly introduced war crimes of the ICC Statute and of the peculiarities of cyber attacks and other emerging activities The volume complements Volume I of the treatise on issues relevant to the foundations general part of international criminal law and general principles of international criminal justice Taken together with the other new editions of the three volume series this second edition provides an exhaustive guide to every aspect of international criminal law from fundamental principles to procedures and implementation Kai Ambos Treatise remains an indispensable reference work for academics and practitioners of international criminal law

Violence Against Women and Criminal Justice in Africa: Volume I Emma Charlene Lubaale,Ashwanee Budoo-Scholtz,2021-11-27 This book examines violence against women in Africa and criminal justice from the perspective of African scholars practitioners and experts As a global and long standing issue violence against women is gaining public visibility across the African continent with some states announcing a national crisis warranting immediate redress At the global level the elimination of all forms of violence against all women and girls forms a key part of United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 5 Gender Equality Split across two volumes these books present a comprehensive analysis of the latest research and theories principles and practices of criminal justice systems criminal justice accountability mechanisms and the key challenges women face in their quest for justice on the African continent Volume I focusses on legislation and its impact the limitations of criminal justice responses and the cultural and social norms regarding access to justice Volume II examines sexual violence and vulnerable women s access to justice in Africa They adopt a comparative approach that highlight gaps and good practices to provide a rich source of authoritative information for promoting an intra African dialogue and cross fertilization of ideas across the different criminal justice traditions in Africa Both volumes seek to advance discussions on eliminating violence against women in Africa and speak to those interested in criminal justice violence gender studies and African legal studies
