

Voting and Elections

Three Elementary Principles

1. In the limited franchise, the electorates are voters select people.
2. Universal suffrage includes the fullest citizenship in government.
3. General elections the regularly scheduled elections every individual member of electorate.

Three Intermediate Principles

1. There are 3 ways a candidate can be proposed by the public:
 - a. Ballot nomination Agreement with voters before the voting process starts in election electoral member/representative approaches the public, the public agrees to elect (process has been used).
 - b. The caucus Typically a public meeting of local citizens, the voters are participating directly all night long in the state.
 - c. The Convention Involved several thousand that the voters nominate/choose some individuals represent the people's wishes. Party nomination based upon endorsement the voters. However, another nomination process can be set up not by the party voters.

Step 1/2

1. Some parties or representatives of voters Agree on the ballot by consent of parties.
2. All voters party members are usually required to vote by the non-discriminatory parties.
