Self Portrait In Green:

Self Portrait in Green Marie NDiaye, 2021-02-25 NDiaye is a hypnotic storyteller with an unflinching understanding of the rock bottom reality of most people's life New York Times One of France's most exciting prose stylists The Guardian Obsessed by her encounters with the mysterious green women and haunted by the Garonne River a nameless narrator seeks them out in La Roche Paris Marseille and Ouagadougou Each encounter reveals different aspects of the women real or imagined dead or alive seductive or suicidal driving the narrator deeper into her obsession in this unsettling exploration of identity memory and paranoia Self Portrait in Green is the multi prize winning Marie NDiaye's brilliant subversion of the memoir Written in diary entries with lyrical prose and dreamlike imagery we start with and return to the river which mirrors the narrative by posing more questions than it answers Pack My Back Henry Green, 1952 Pack My Bag Henry Green, 1993 Green's memoirs of growing up in England the stately home packed with wounded soldiers of World War I the miseries of Eton and later his literary career Stepping Off the Edge Anne McConnell, 2021-03-09 Stepping Off the Edge addresses the question of literary edges and endings in contemporary works of literature from France the United States Canada and Latin America The book includes discussion of works by nine different authors including Anne Carson Marie NDiaye Paul Auster and C S Lewis It considers the way that specific texts identify and interrogate textual boundaries and also draw attention to questions of closure Each of these texts also reflects on the way we experience and write about edges and endings in our lives The Art of Peter Prendergast Richard Cork, 2013 Peter Prendergast 1946 2007 painter of bold expressionist landscapes seascapes and self portraits was an outstanding artist as celebrated in this important new publication Complementing The Painter's Quarry 2006 this beautifully illustrated book will enhance our understanding of a significant painter and as such is an essential purchase for all those interested in modern British art Henry Green Nick Shepley, 2016 Henry Green Class Style and the Everyday combines biography social historical context and close readings of all of Green's novels to provide a clearer vantage point from which to see into the challenges and pleasures awaiting the reader of Green's fiction Writers of the Old School Rosemary M. Colt, Janice Rossen, 1992-06-18 This charts the emergence of British writers who assimilated the experimentation of the modernists in a realist tradition also crafting their own distinctive literary voice The essays in this volume cover a broad range of authors including George Orwell and Evelyn Waugh Great War Modernism Nanette Norris, 2015-12-16 New Modernist Studies while reviving and revitalizing modernist studies through lively scholarly debate about historicity aesthetics politics and genres is struggling with important questions concerning the delineation that makes discussion fruitful and possible This volume aims to explore and clarify the position of the so called core of literary modernism in its seminal engagement with the Great War In studying the years of the Great War we find ourselves once more studying the giants about whom there is so much more to say as well as adding hitherto marginalized writers and a few visual artists to the canon The contention here is that these war years were seminal to the development of a distinguishable literary practice which is called modernism but perhaps could be further delineated as Great War modernism a practice whose aesthetic merits can be addressed through formal analysis This collection of essays offers new insight into canonical British American European modernism of the Great War period using the critical tools of contemporary expansionist modernist studies By focusing on war and on the experience of the soldier and of those dealing with issues of war and survival these studies link the unique forms of expression found in modernism with the fragmented violent and traumatic experience of the time

Green Light George Gessert, 2012-02-10 How humans aesthetic perceptions have shaped other life forms from racehorses to ornamental plants Humans have bred plants and animals with an eye to aesthetics for centuries flowers are selected for colorful blossoms or luxuriant foliage racehorses are prized for the elegance of their frames Hybridized plants were first exhibited as fine art in 1936 when the Museum of Modern Art in New York showed Edward Steichen's hybrid delphiniums Since then bio art has become a genre artists work with a variety of living things including plants animals bacteria slime molds and fungi Many commentators have addressed the social and political concerns raised by making art out of living material In Green Light however George Gessert examines the role that aesthetic perception has played in bio art and other interventions in evolution Gessert looks at a variety of life forms that humans have helped shape focusing on plants the most widely domesticated form of life and the one that has been crucial to his own work as an artist We learn about pleasure gardens of the Aztecs cultivated for intoxicating fragrance the aesthetic standards promoted by national plant societies a daffodil that looks like a rose and praise for weeds and wildflowers

British Literature and Culture in Second World Wartime Beryl Pong, 2020 Demonstrates how spatial and temporal dislocation were defining traits of the artistic response to the urban bombing campaigns of the Second World War Studying a range of writers as well as film photography and art it argues that for civilian populations aerial bombardment distorts the experience of time itself

Folklore Rising Ben Edge, 2024-10-08 Ben Edge is a rising star of both the art world and the current folk renaissance This first trade book of Edge's art featuring over 200 artworks is a unique insight into his creative process as well as the first mainstream book to explore the amazing and wildly popular folk customs of the British ritual year In his deeply squirrely edgy almost mystic paintings Ben Edge tries to ask where we all come from and why we tell ourselves the stories we tell ourselves Jerry Saltz It's time to rediscover the real and this book tells you where to find it Indispensable Jarvis Cocker Ben Edge has travelled the length and breadth of Britain recording the weird and wonderful folk customs alive in communities all over the country In this book the first trade edition of his art he shares over 200 paintings and photographs along with real life stories anecdotes and legends He talks about how connecting with our incredible living folklore helped him recover from depression and also introduces his idea of folklore activism suggesting that the current massive resurgence of interest in contemporary folk culture represents ordinary people's desire to find new ways of envisioning community and caring for and connecting to nature Readers will be enchanted and inspired by the images and description of Mass events that are attended
